

HELP TELL THE STORIES OF LGBT PEOPLE IN THE SOUTH

HELP TELL THE STORIES OF LGBT PEOPLE IN THE SOUTH

The LGBT Institute has partnered with Georgia State University to create one the largest surveys ever conducted of LGBT individuals in the South. This is a study of, by, and for Southern LGBT people, conducted with the help of many community organizations across the 14 Southern states.

The LGBT Institute has partnered with Georgia State University to create one the largest surveys ever conducted of LGBT individuals in the South. This is a study of, by, and for Southern LGBT people, conducted with the help of many community organizations across the 14 Southern states.

The goal of this research is to amplify the voice of LGBT Southerners and highlight the issues affecting our lives. The LGBT Institute Southern Survey 2017 touches on a broad range of topics, including education and employment, health and wellness, safety and crime, sexual and gender identity, and discrimination.

The goal of this research is to amplify the voice of LGBT Southerners and highlight the issues affecting our lives. The LGBT Institute Southern Survey 2017 touches on a broad range of topics, including education and employment, health and wellness, safety and crime, sexual and gender identity, and discrimination.

ANONYMOUS

VOLUNTARY

BE HEARD

The survey is completely anonymous – we do not ask for your name or any other information that could be used to identify you.

The survey is completely voluntary, and if you choose to participate, you can skip any question you do not feel comfortable answering.

This survey is a way to make your voice heard, and make an important contribution to improving public understanding of LGBT life in the South.

ANONYMOUS

VOLUNTARY

BE HEARD

The survey is completely anonymous – we do not ask for your name or any other information that could be used to identify you.

The survey is completely voluntary, and if you choose to participate, you can skip any question you do not feel comfortable answering.

This survey is a way to make your voice heard, and make an important contribution to improving public understanding of LGBT life in the South.

The LGBT Institute will publish a special series of reports in 2017 describing the survey findings, and will use the data to develop fact sheets, policy briefs, and other papers to help policymakers and community leaders better understand and respond to the needs of LGBT Southerners.

The LGBT Institute will publish a special series of reports in 2017 describing the survey findings, and will use the data to develop fact sheets, policy briefs, and other papers to help policymakers and community leaders better understand and respond to the needs of LGBT Southerners.

ARE YOU READY TO MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD?

ARE YOU READY TO MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD?

GET STARTED NOW: www.SouthernSurvey17.org

GET STARTED NOW: www.SouthernSurvey17.org

QUESTIONS & CONCERNS:

Eric R. Wright, Ph.D.
Chair, Department of Sociology

☎ (404) 413-6527 📠 (404) 413-6505 ✉ ewright28@gsu.edu

QUESTIONS & CONCERNS:

Eric R. Wright, Ph.D.
Chair, Department of Sociology

☎ (404) 413-6527 📠 (404) 413-6505 ✉ ewright28@gsu.edu

