Visit the San Mateo County Disaster Resource Center to receive federal, state, county, and nonprofit services all in the same place. You can get help with:

- Your application to FEMA and other disaster assistance programs
- Housing and rent
- Questions about insurance
- Replacing your driver's license, identification, and other vital records
- Emergency help with food, bills, unemployment, and tax relief
- Services and information on housing rights, food programs, domestic violence prevention, shelter, mental health resources, and more

TIP

If you are applying for FEMA financial assistance, save all related receipts, including any denial letters from your insurance company
