

What kind of life do you want? Your choice: take the "conveyor belt ride" or have...

a thinking journey

Have a plan.

Vision your own timeline.

Learn from your mistakes.
Don't give up.

Believe in yourself. Take criticism with a grain of salt.

Be curious.

Be aware of opportunities.

Do it differently.

Environment matters.
Find your element.

Inventory your talents,
goals, skills and dreams.
Map out your constellation.

Read. Write.
Thinkers do a lot of both.

What's your mission?

Create expeditions that are inspired by your
"North Star constellation."

Think about what kind of learner you are & tailor how you learn to what you want to learn.

Peter H. Reynolds

20 TIPS FOR A CREATIVE THINKING JOURNEY

Think beyond yourself.
Get involved in your community. Learn about the world. Know at least one thing about every country in the world.

Find kindred spirits.

Develop your instincts,
your "gut feel."

Broadcast
your interests.

Be compassionate & kind. Think of others as you journey.

Recognize resources.
Find expertise to help you.
Find your coach.
Find your inspirer.

Defy the labels.
Break down the silos.
Combine interests —
for ex., could you combine jazz and math?

Don't wait to start!