

Brian Little, BSc, MSc, PAg

Brian Little was elected to the CFFAE Board of Directors in 2012. He is a member of the Priority Planning and Fundraising Committee as well as the Education and Scholarship Committee.

Brian received his BScAgr and Masters from the Ontario Agricultural College (OAC), University of Guelph. He operates a small consulting business, having retired from the RBC Royal Bank where he was Head of Agriculture and Agribusiness, Not for Profit and Public Sectors for 33 years.

Brian serves on a number of public and volunteer Boards / Foundations. He is Vice Chair of the Ontario 4-H Council and also serves as Chair of the Fundraising Committee for the OAC Alumni Foundation. He is Past President of the Canadian 4-H Council, Past President of the Canadian 4-H Foundation, an Honourary Member of the Canadian 4-H Council and a Patron of the Canadian 4-H Foundation.

Brian received the University of Guelph Alumni Volunteer Award in June 2017, recognizing him as “a tireless volunteer with an unwavering commitment to the University of Guelph and the agricultural industry.”

He is a member of the Ontario Institute of Agrologists. Brian grew up on a farm in Dufferin County and now lives in Oakville, Ontario.

Photo courtesy University of Guelph