Re: May 26, 2010 Meeting

Request for No Parking on Jackson at Monroe Streets for Pedestrians.

Here's a map of the intersection along with photographs.

This is a general map of the area of concern from Therese Hahn.

The specific area is from the western intersection of N Monroe Street & Jackson Street east to the crosswalk on the south side of Jackson Street.

N Monroe Street facing north toward Jackson Street – yellow arrows on right show concern

From South of Jackson St looking North, Yellow line at curb is area of concern – added to photo

Looking Southwest across offset intersection of Jackson & N Monroe Streets (yellow added)

After reviewing the intersection and concerns addressed, it appears to be a good decision to post this short area a No Parking Area.

Sincerely,
