Species

Ulin (Eusideroxylon zwageri)

Ulin is a remarkable wood. It's extremely slow growth rate at less than 0.5mm a year results in a highly dense wood ideal for exterior applications. Ulin is a rare tree native to Indonesia. At I-rewood all our items come from Ulin certified 100% FSC to take care of our forests.

All of our wood has been reclaimed or salvaged from ethical and legal sources. We take unused structures such as bridges, jetties and boats and turn them into beautiful homewares and gift boxes.

Materials have been carefully selected to offer huge design freedom, with the ability to create a multitude of textural finishes such as Classic, Vintage, Exotic, plus bespoke size and finish options for endless. Rest easy! Bring nature into your home.

In addition for every 5 gift boxes, of any model, purchased we will replant one ironwood tree with the FNPF in Borneo!

I-rewood's hardwood gift boxes are the ideal eco-friendly and unique gifts for both indoor and outdoor

Here's a guide to help you choose from a range of products and unique customization.
