Brown Girls DO Ballet

Brown Girls Do Ballet is a nonprofit born out of one mother’s dismay at the lack of cultural diversity in local ballet schools. The organization now works to increase the participation of underrepresented minority populations in ballet programs.

To learn more about this organization visit its website, Instagram and Twitter pages.