Call to Worship

Psalm 19:7-11

⁷The law of the LORD is perfect,
reviving the soul;
the testimony of the LORD is sure,
making wise the simple;
⁸the precepts of the LORD are right,
rejoicing the heart;
the commandment of the LORD is pure,
enlightening the eyes;
⁹the fear of the LORD is clean,
enduring forever;
the rules of the LORD are true,
and righteous altogether.
¹⁰More to be desired are they than gold,
even much fine gold;
sweeter also than honey
and drippings of the honeycomb.
¹¹Moreover, by them is your servant warned;
in keeping them there is great reward.

How Firm a Foundation

1. How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
2. "Fear not, I am with thee; O be not dismayed,
3. "When thro' fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
4. "The soul that on Je - sus hath leaned for re - pose

Is laid for your faith in His ex - cel - lent Word!
For I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
My grace, all - suf - fi - cient, shall be thy sup - ply;
I will not, I will not de - sert to his foes;

What more can He say than to you He hath said,
I'll strength - en thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
The flame shall not hurt thee; I on - ly de - sign
That soul, tho' all hell should en - deav - or to shake,

To you who for ref - uge to Je - sus have fled?
Up - held by My righ - teous, om - nip - o - tent hand.
Thy dross to con - sume, and thy gold to re - fine.
I'll nev - er, no, nev - er, no, nev - er for - sake!"

Scripture Reading

Numbers 14:20-38

²⁰Then the LORD said, "I have pardoned, according to your word. ²¹But truly, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD, ²²none of the men who have seen my glory and my signs that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and yet have put me to the test these ten times and have not obeyed my voice, ²³shall see the land that I swore to give to their fathers. And none of those who despised me shall see it. ²⁴But my servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed me fully, I will bring into the land into which he went, and his descendants shall possess it. ²⁵Now, since the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valleys, turn tomorrow and set out for the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea."

²⁶And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²⁷"How long shall this wicked congregation grumble against me? I have heard the grumblings of the people of Israel, which they grumble against me. ²⁸Say to them, 'As I live, declares the LORD, what you have said in my hearing I will do to you: ²⁹your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness, and of all your number, listed in the census from twenty years old and upward, who have grumbled against me, ³⁰not one shall come into the land where I swore that I would make you dwell, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun. ³¹But your little ones, who you said would become a prey, I will bring in, and they shall know the land that you have rejected. ³²But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness. ³³And your children shall be shepherds in the wilderness forty years and shall suffer for your faithlessness, until the last of your dead bodies lies in the wilderness. ³⁴According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, a year for each day, you shall bear your iniquity forty years, and you shall know my displeasure.' ³⁵I, the LORD, have spoken. Surely this will I do to all this wicked congregation who are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall come to a full end, and there they shall die."

³⁶And the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned and made all the congregation grumble against him by bringing up a bad report about the land— ³⁷the men who brought up a bad report of the land—died by plague before the LORD. ³⁸Of those men who went to spy out the land, only Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive.

In My Heart

In my heart there is a stirring,
One that did not start with me;
A love to worship my Creator,
To show His love for all to see.

Chorus

I will worship, I will honor,
I will exalt the Lord above.
All my days I'll sing the praises
Of His great redeeming love.

In my heart there is a treason,
One that poisons all my love.
Take my heart and consecrate it,
Wash it in Your cleansing flood.

(Chorus)

Tie me to the rock unchanging,
Tie me to His wondrous cross.
I'll fix my eyes upon the Savior,
All other things I count as loss.

(Chorus)

Psalm 62

My soul finds rest in God alone,
My rock and my salvation,
A fortress strong against my foes,
And I will not be shaken.
Though lips may bless and hearts may curse
And lies like arrows pierce me,
I'll fix my heart on righteousness;
I'll look to Him who hears me.

Chorus

O praise Him, hallelujah!
My Delight and my Reward;
Everlasting, never failing,
My Redeemer, my God.

Find rest my soul in God alone
Amid the world's temptations.
When evil seeks to take a hold,
I'll cling to my salvation.
Though riches come and riches go,
Don't set your heart upon them;
The fields of hope in which I sow
Are harvested in heaven.

(Chorus)

I'll set my gaze on God alone
And trust in Him completely;
With ev'ry day, pour out my soul,
And He will prove His mercy.
Though life is but a fleeting breath,
A sigh too deep to measure,
My King has crushed the curse of death
And I am His forever.

(Chorus)

(Chorus)

I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
“Come unto Me and rest;
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon My breast.”
I came to Jesus as I was,
Weary, and worn, and sad;
I found in Him a resting place,
And He has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
“Behold, I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down and drink, and live.”
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in Him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
“I am this dark world’s Light;
Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise,
And all thy day be bright.”
I looked to Jesus, and I found
In Him my Star, my Sun;
And in that Light of life I’ll walk
Till trav’ling days are done.

Offering

Matthew 11:28-30

²⁸“Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
²⁹Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

TRUST IN JESUS
 8.7.8.7. with Refrain

Preparation for the Lord's Supper

I. The Lord's Supper is an ordinance of Christ.

Our Lord Jesus Christ has commanded all who are saved by faith to remember him through the observation of the ordinance. (Matthew 26:26-29, Mark 14:22-25, Luke 22:14-23)

The bread represents Christ's body that was crushed for our iniquity.

The cup represents his blood that was poured out to wash away our transgressions.

Our eating and drinking represent our faith in what he has done for us.

Our celebrating this together represents that we are united under Christ.

II. The Lord's Supper calls us all to self-examination.

Paul's teaching in I Corinthians 11:17-34 gives us four questions we should ask before partaking in the Lord's Supper:

First, do I believe Jesus Christ has died for my sins and is raised to give me new life?

If you are not a Christian, you should let the bread and the cup pass. Use this time to meditate on the good news that Jesus has laid down his life for sinners so that they can be forgiven and reconciled to God.

Second, have I been baptized and made my profession of faith public?

Paul is addressing "brothers" which always indicates those who have professed faith publicly. Baptism is the believer's first public obedience to Christ. If you believe the gospel and have not been baptized, we encourage you to let the elements pass and prayerfully consider why you have not followed Christ in baptism.

Third, have I committed to a body of believers that knows I am part of their regular fellowship?

Paul addresses the church in the context of “when you come together” four times (vv. 18, 20, 33, 34). In vv. 33-34, he calls them to wait for everyone who is expected before beginning, implying that the ordinance was to be celebrated by a group of believers who gathered together and had a commitment to one another. If you are not publicly committed to a gathering of believers, please let the elements pass. Prayerfully consider why you have not committed to and submitted yourself to a church so that other Christians expect you and look forward to your fellowship each Sunday.

Fourth, have I sinned against someone in the body and need to seek forgiveness?

Paul calls us to examine ourselves (28), discern the body (29), and judge ourselves (31). We must recognize that we are taking the Lord's Supper as a church united because of the grace we have received from Christ. Do not hesitate to seek forgiveness from a member during our time of prayer so you can celebrate the forgiveness we have in Christ together.

During our time of reflection, please prayerfully consider these questions. Paul warns us not to take the Lord's Supper in an unworthy manner. If you are uncertain about these questions, please speak with an elder.

III. The Lord's Supper reminds us of the hope we have in Jesus.

The Lord's Supper reminds us that Christ died for the forgiveness of our sins. The Lord's Supper reminds us that we will share in the wedding supper of the Lamb when he returns. There we will rejoice in his love and grace forever.

Silent Reflection

for the bread

Hebrews 3:1-4:13

pp. 1002-1003

Reflection in Song

for the cup

I will glory in my Redeemer,
Whose priceless blood has ransomed me.
Mine was the sin that drove the bitter nails
And hung Him on that judgment tree.
I will glory in my Redeemer,
Who crushed the pow'r of sin and death,
My only Savior before the holy Judge,
The Lamb Who is my righteousness,
The Lamb Who is my righteousness.

I will glory in my Redeemer:
My life He bought; my love He owns.
I have no longings for another;
I'm satisfied in Him alone.
I will glory in my Redeemer,
His faithfulness my standing place;
Though foes are mighty and rush upon me
My feet are firm, held by His grace,
My feet are firm, held by His grace.

I will glory in my Redeemer,
Who carries me on eagle's wings.
He crowns my life with lovingkindness;
His triumph song I'll ever sing!
I will glory in my Redeemer,
Who waits for me on streets of gold,
And when He calls me, it will be paradise
His face forever to behold,
His face forever to behold.

I will glory in my Redeemer,
Who waits for me on streets of gold,
And when He calls me, it will be paradise
His face forever to behold,
His face forever to behold.

I Will Glory in My Redeemer

Leader:

For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup,
you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.
Come Lord Jesus.

Congregation:

Come quickly.

Benediction

Holy God in love became
Perfect Man to bear my blame;
On the cross He took my sin;
By His death I live again.

(repeat)

Winter 2016 Sunday School Begins January 10th

Discipleship & Evangelism

Discipleship was one of the central themes of Jesus' teaching, yet Christians often struggle to know what it means or looks like. This class, taught by Sam Crosby, explores the Bible's teaching on discipleship, and covers such topics as the need for discipleship, the demands of discipleship, and the enemy of discipleship. The goal of this 6-week class is to see and appreciate the centrality of discipleship in the Christian life.

Following the Discipleship course, Ben Bullard will teach a 6-week class on evangelism. The Bible calls all Christians to share the good news about Jesus' death and resurrection with those who don't believe in Christ. Yet this task can often seem daunting. This class helps participants have the right perspectives on evangelism and shows them how to share the good news with others.

Class will meet in the downstairs fellowship hall.

Lifeway Study

Priceless: Finding Your Value in God. Where do we find our value? In most circles, our sense of value is derived from a person's heritage, background, wealth, looks, or position. God has a whole different standard for determining our value. Because God loves us immeasurably, we are priceless in His eyes. Even though we sin and fail, God has done everything to bring us back to Himself and restore our value.

This class will meet in the fellowship hall.
