Prelude

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

<sup>1</sup>Oh sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all the earth!

<sup>2</sup>Sing to the LORD, bless his name;
tell of his salvation from day to day.

<sup>3</sup>Declare his glory among the nations,
his marvelous works among all the peoples!

<sup>4</sup>For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
he is to be feared above all gods.

<sup>5</sup>For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols,
but the LORD made the heavens.

<sup>6</sup>Splendor and majesty are before him;
strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

<sup>7</sup>Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength!

<sup>8</sup>Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name;
bring an offering, and come into his courts!

<sup>9</sup>Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness;
tremble before him, all the earth!

<sup>10</sup>Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns!
Yes, the world is established; it shall never be moved;
he will judge the peoples with equity."

<sup>11</sup>Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;
let the sea roar, and all that fills it;
<sup>12</sup>let the field exult, and everything in it!
Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy

<sup>13</sup>before the LORD, for he comes,
for he comes to judge the earth.
He will judge the world in righteousness,
and the peoples in his faithfulness.

Psalm 96

Come, People of the Risen King

Come, people of the Risen King,
Who delight to bring Him praise;
Come all, and tune your hearts to sing
To the Morning Star of grace.
From the shifting shadows of the earth
We will lift our eyes to Him,
Where steady arms of mercy reach
To gather children in.

Refrain

Rejoice, Rejoice! Let every tongue rejoice!
One heart, one voice; O Church of Christ, rejoice!

Come, those whose joy is morning sun,
And those weeping through the night;
Come, those who tell of battles won,
And those struggling in the fight.
For His perfect love will never change,
And His mercies never cease,
But follow us through all our days
With the certain hope of peace.

(Refrain)

Come, young and old from every land -
Men and women of the faith;
Come, those with full or empty hands -
Find the riches of His grace.
Over all the world, His people sing -
Shore to shore we hear them call
The Truth that cries through every age:
"Our God is all in all"!

(Refrain)

Scripture Reading

Deuteronomy 6:10-25

<sup>10</sup>“And when the LORD your God brings you into the land that he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you—with great and good cities that you did not build, <sup>11</sup>and houses full of all good things that you did not fill, and cisterns that you did not dig, and vineyards and olive trees that you did not plant—and when you eat and are full, <sup>12</sup>then take care lest you forget the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. <sup>13</sup>It is the LORD your God you shall fear. Him you shall serve and by his name you shall swear. <sup>14</sup>You shall not go after other gods, the gods of the peoples who are around you— <sup>15</sup>for the LORD your God in your midst is a jealous God—lest the anger of the LORD your God be kindled against you, and he destroy you from off the face of the earth.

<sup>16</sup>“You shall not put the LORD your God to the test, as you tested him at Massah. <sup>17</sup>You shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies and his statutes, which he has commanded you. <sup>18</sup>And you shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, that it may go well with you, and that you may go in and take possession of the good land that the LORD swore to give to your fathers <sup>19</sup>by thrusting out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has promised.

<sup>20</sup>“When your son asks you in time to come, ‘What is the meaning of the testimonies and the statutes and the rules that the LORD our God has commanded you?’ <sup>21</sup>then you shall say to your son, ‘We were Pharaoh’s slaves in Egypt. And the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. <sup>22</sup>And the LORD showed signs and wonders, great and grievous, against Egypt and against Pharaoh and all his household, before our eyes. <sup>23</sup>And he brought us out from there, that he might bring us in and give us the land that he swore to give to our fathers. <sup>24</sup>And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as we are this day. <sup>25</sup>And it will be righteousness for us, if we are careful to do all this commandment before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us.’”

May the Mind of Christ

Oh, How Good It Is

Oh, how good it is when the family of God
 Dwells together in spirit, in faith and unity,
 Where the bonds of peace, of acceptance and love
 Are the fruit of His presence here among us.

Chorus

So with one voice we'll sing to the Lord,
 And with one heart we'll live out His word
 Till the whole earth sees the Redeemer has come,
 For He dwells in the presence of His people.

Oh, how good it is on this journey we share
 To rejoice with the happy and weep with those who mourn.
 For the weak find strength, the afflicted find grace
 When we offer the blessing of belonging.

(Chorus)

Oh, how good it is to embrace His command,
 To prefer one another, forgive as He forgives.
 When we live as one, we all share in the love
 Of the Son with the Father and the Spirit.

Offering

1 John 4:9-11

<sup>9</sup>In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. <sup>10</sup>In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. <sup>11</sup>Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

All to Us

Precious cornerstone, sure foundation,
 You are faithful to the end.
 We are waiting on You, Jesus;
 We believe You're all to us.
 (Repeat)

Chorus

Let the glory of Your name
 Be the passion of the Church,
 Let the righteousness of God
 Be a holy flame that burns,
 Let the saving love of Christ
 Be the measure of our lives;
 We believe You're all to us.

Only Son of God sent from heaven,
 Hope and mercy at the cross.
 You are ev'rything, You're the promise;
 Jesus, You are all to us.

(Chorus)

When this passing world is over,
 We will see You face to face,
 And forever we will worship.
 Jesus, You are all to us.

(Chorus twice)

Preparation for the Lord's Supper

I. The Lord's Supper is an ordinance of Christ.

Our Lord Jesus Christ has commanded all who are saved by faith to remember him through the observation of the ordinance. (Matthew 26:26-29, Mark 14:22-25, Luke 22:14-23)

The bread represents Christ's body that was crushed for our iniquity.

The cup represents his blood that was poured out to wash away our transgressions.

Our eating and drinking represent our faith in what he has done for us.

Our celebrating this together represents that we are united under Christ.

II. The Lord's Supper calls us all to self-examination.

Paul's teaching in I Corinthians 11:17-34 gives us four questions we should ask before partaking in the Lord's Supper:

First, do I believe Jesus Christ has died for my sins and is raised to give me new life?

If you are not a Christian, you should let the bread and the cup pass. Use this time to meditate on the good news that Jesus has laid down his life for sinners so that they can be forgiven and reconciled to God.

Second, have I been baptized and made my profession of faith public?

Paul is addressing "brothers" which always indicates those who have professed faith publicly. Baptism is the believer's first public obedience to Christ. If you believe the gospel and have not been baptized, we encourage you to let the elements pass and prayerfully consider why you have not followed Christ in baptism.

Preparation for the Lord's Supper

Third, have I committed to a body of believers that knows I am part of their regular fellowship?

Paul addresses the church in the context of “when you come together” four times (vv. 18, 20, 33, 34). In vv. 33-34, he calls them to wait for everyone who is expected before beginning, implying that the ordinance was to be celebrated by a group of believers who gathered together and had a commitment to one another. If you are not publicly committed to a gathering of believers, please let the elements pass. Prayerfully consider why you have not committed to and submitted yourself to a church so that other Christians expect you and look forward to your fellowship each Sunday.

Fourth, have I sinned against someone in the body and need to seek forgiveness?

Paul calls us to examine ourselves (28), discern the body (29), and judge ourselves (31). We must recognize that we are taking the Lord's Supper as a church united because of the grace we have received from Christ. Do not hesitate to seek forgiveness from a member during our time of prayer so you can celebrate the forgiveness we have in Christ together.

During our time of reflection, please prayerfully consider these questions. Paul warns us not to take the Lord's Supper in an unworthy manner. If you are uncertain about these questions, please speak to an elder.

III. The Lord's Supper reminds us of the hope we have in Jesus.

The Lord's Supper reminds us that Christ died for the forgiveness of our sins.

The Lord's Supper reminds us that we will share in the wedding supper of the Lamb when he returns. There we will rejoice in his love and grace forever.
