NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETING

If you are in any doubt as to what action you should take in respect of the following resolutions, please consult your Central Securities Depository Participant (“CSDP”), broker, banker, attorney, accountant or other professional adviser immediately.

All terms used in this Notice of General Meeting shall, unless the context otherwise requires or they are otherwise defined herein, have the meanings attributed to them in the Master Plastics Pre-listing Statement dated 5 May 2017 (“the Pre-listing Statement”).

Shareholders are reminded that the implementation of the unbundling and listing of Master Plastics is subject to the suspensive condition that all resolutions proposed at the General Meeting of Astrapak Shareholders, the Ordinary Share Scheme Meeting and the Preference Share Scheme Meeting as detailed in the Astrapak issued circular dated 7 April 2017 and which relevant meetings are to be held on Friday, 12 May 2017 have been duly passed and this Notice of General Meeting has been prepared on the assumption that same occurs.

Notice is hereby given to the holders of ordinary shares in the share capital of the Company that a general meeting (“General Meeting”) will be held at 10:00 on Wednesday, 7 June 2017 at Protea Hotel Fire & Ice, situated at Melrose Arch, Sandton, Johannesburg, for the purpose of considering, and, if deemed fit, passing, with or without modification, the resolutions set out hereafter.

The board of directors of the Company (“the Board”) have determined that, in terms of section 62(3)(a), as read with section 59 of the Companies Act, the record date for the purposes of determining which shareholders of the Company are entitled to participate in and vote at the General Meeting is Friday, 2 June 2017. Accordingly, the last day to trade Master Plastics shares in order to be recorded in the Register to be entitled to vote will be Tuesday, 30 May 2017.

The purpose of the General Meeting is to:

(a) consider and, if deemed fit, to pass, with or without modification, the ordinary and special resolutions (“resolutions”) set out in items 1 to 6 hereunder in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act and the Listings Requirements; and

(b) consider any and all matters of the Company as may lawfully be dealt with at the General Meeting of the Company.

An abbreviated curriculum vitae in respect of each proposed member of the Audit and Risk Committees, appears on pages 21 to 22 of the Pre-listing Statement.

3. SPECIAL RESOLUTION NUMBER 1

General approval to acquire ordinary shares

“Resolved, by way of a general approval that the Company and/or any of its subsidiaries from time to time be and are hereby authorised to acquire ordinary shares in the Company in terms of sections 46 and 48 of the Companies Act, the Memoranda of Incorporation of the Company and its subsidiaries and the Listings Requirements.

The Listings Requirements currently provide, inter alia, that:

- the acquisition of the ordinary shares must be effected through the order book operated by the JSE trading system and done without any prior understanding or arrangement between the Company and the counter party (reported trades are prohibited);
- this general authority shall only be valid until the earlier of the Company’s next general meeting or the expiry of a period of 15 (fifteen) months from the date of passing of this special resolution;
- in determining the price at which the Company’s ordinary shares are acquired in terms of this general authority, the maximum premium at which such ordinary shares may be acquired will be 10% (ten percent) of the weighted average of the market value at which such ordinary shares are traded on the JSE, as determined over the 5 (five) business days immediately preceding the date on which the transaction is effected;
- at any point in time, the Company may only appoint one agent to effect any acquisition/s on its behalf;
- the acquisitions of ordinary shares in the aggregate in any one financial year may not exceed 20% (twenty percent) of the Company’s issued ordinary shares;
- the Company may only effect the repurchase once a resolution has been passed by the Board confirming that the Board has authorised the repurchase, that the Company has passed the solvency and liquidity test (“test”) and that since the test was done there have been no material changes to the financial position of the Group;
- the Company or its subsidiaries may not acquire ordinary shares during a prohibited period as defined in paragraph 3.67 of the Listings Requirements;
- an announcement will be published once the Company has cumulatively repurchased 3% (three percent) of the number of the ordinary shares in issue at the time this general authority is granted (“initial number”), and for each 3% (three percent) in aggregate of the initial number acquired thereafter.”

Explanatory note

The purpose of this special resolution number 1 is to obtain an authority for, and to authorise, the Company and the Company’s subsidiaries, by way of a general authority, to acquire the Company’s issued ordinary shares.

It is the intention of the directors of the Company to use such authority should prevailing circumstances (including tax dispensations and market conditions) in their opinion warrant it.

The directors, whose names are given in paragraph 8 on page 19 of the Pre-listing Statement, collectively and individually accept full responsibility for the accuracy of the information pertaining to special resolution number 1 and certify that to the best of their knowledge and belief there are no facts in relation to special resolution number 1 that have been omitted which would make any statement in relation to special resolution number 1 false or misleading, and that all reasonable enquiries to ascertain such facts have been made and that special resolution number 1 together with the Notice of General Meeting contains all information required by law and the Listings Requirements in relation to special resolution number 1.

3.4 Adequacy of working capital

At the time that the contemplated repurchase is to take place, the directors of the Company will ensure that, after considering the effect of the maximum repurchase:

VOTING AND PROXIES
Special resolutions to be adopted at this General Meeting require approval from at least 75% (seventy five percent) of the votes exercised on such resolutions by shareholders present or represented by proxy at the meeting. Ordinary resolutions to be adopted at this General Meeting, unless otherwise stated, require approval from a simple majority, which is more than 50% of the votes exercised on such resolutions by shareholders present or represented by proxy at the meeting.

A shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the General Meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy or proxies to attend and act in his/her stead. A proxy need not be a member of the Company. For the convenience of registered members of the Company, a form of proxy is attached hereto.

The attached form of proxy is only to be completed by those ordinary shareholders who:

• are recorded on the sub-register in “own name” dematerialised form.

Ordinary shareholders who have dematerialised their ordinary shares through a CSDP or broker without “own name” registration and who wish to attend the General Meeting, must instruct their CSDP or broker to provide them with the relevant Letter of Representation to attend the meeting in person or by proxy and vote. If they do not wish to attend in person or by proxy, they must provide the CSDP or broker with their voting instructions in terms of the relevant custody agreement entered into between them and the CSDP or broker.

Proxy forms should be forwarded to reach the Company Secretary (by email at the address salome@astrapak.co.za), at least 48 (forty-eight) hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays, before the time of the meeting.

Electronic participation at the General Meeting
Shareholders or their proxies may participate in (but not vote at) the General Meeting by way of a teleconference call and, if they wish to do so:

• will be required to provide reasonably satisfactory identification; and
• will be billed separately by their own telephone service providers for their telephone call to participate in the General Meeting, provided that shareholders and their proxies will not be able to vote telephonically at the General Meeting and will still need to appoint a proxy to vote on their behalf at the General Meeting.

Kindly note that meeting participants, which includes proxies, are required to provide reasonably satisfactory identification before being entitled to attend or participate in a shareholders’ meeting. Forms of identification include valid identity documents, driver’s licenses and passports.

By order of the Board.

Notes to proxy

1. Summary of Rights Contained in section 58 of the Companies Act, 2008 (Act 71 of 2008), as amended ("Companies Act").

In terms of section 58 of the Companies Act:-

- a shareholder may, at any time and in accordance with the provisions of section 58 of the Companies Act, appoint any individual (including an individual who is not a shareholder) as a proxy to participate in, and speak and vote at, a shareholders’ meeting on behalf of such shareholder;
- a proxy may delegate his or her authority to act on behalf of a shareholder to another person, subject to any restriction set out in the instrument appointing such proxy;
- irrespective of the form of instrument used to appoint a proxy, the appointment of a proxy is suspended at any time and to the extent that the relevant shareholder chooses to act directly and in person in the exercise of any of such shareholder’s rights as a shareholder;
- irrespective of the form of instrument used to appoint a proxy, and an appointment by a shareholder of a proxy is revocable, unless the form of instrument used to appoint such proxy states otherwise;
- if an appointment of a proxy is revocable, a shareholder may revoke it by either (i) inserting an "X" in the relevant block (i.e. by casting it in a "vote") or (ii) delivering a copy of the revocation instrument to the proxy and to the company; and
- a proxy appointed by a shareholder is entitled to exercise, or abstain from exercising, any voting right of such shareholder without direction, except to the extent that the relevant company’s memorandum of incorporation, or the instrument appointing the proxy, provides otherwise (see note 7).

2. The form of proxy must only be completed by shareholders who hold shares in certificated form or who are recorded on the sub-register in electronic form in “own name”.

3. Shareholders who have dematerialised their shares through a CSDP or broker without “own name” registration and wish to attend the General Meeting must instruct their CSDP or broker to provide them with the relevant Letter of Representation to attend the General Meeting in person or by proxy. If they do not wish to attend in person or by proxy, they must provide the CSDP or broker with their voting instructions in terms of the relevant custody agreement entered into between them and the CSDP or broker. Should the CSDP or broker not have provided the Company with the details of the beneficial shareholding at the specific request by the Company, such shares may be disallowed to vote at the General Meeting.

4. A shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the General Meeting may insert the name of a proxy or the names of two alternate proxies (none of whom need be a shareholder of the Company) of the shareholder’s choice in the space provided, with or without deleting “the Chairperson of the meeting”. The person whose name stands first on this form of proxy and who is present at the General Meeting will be entitled to act as proxy to the exclusion of those proxy(ies) whose names follow. Should this space be left blank, the proxy will be exercised by the Chairperson of the meeting.

5. A shareholder is entitled to one vote on a show of hands and, on a poll, one vote in respect of each ordinary share held. A shareholder’s instructions to the proxy must be indicated by the insertion of the relevant number of votes exercisable by that shareholder in the appropriate space provided. If an “X” has been inserted in one of the blocks to a particular resolution, it will indicate the voting of all the shares held by the shareholder concerned. Failure to comply with this will be deemed to authorise the proxy to vote or to abstain from voting at the General Meeting as he/she deems fit in respect of all the shareholder’s votes exercisable thereat. A shareholder or the proxy is not obliged to use all the votes exercisable by the shareholders or by the proxy, but the total of the votes cast and in respect of which abstention is recorded may not exceed the total of the votes exercisable by the shareholder or the proxy.

6. A vote given in terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid in relation to the General Meeting notwithstanding the death, insanity or other legal disability of the person granting it, or the revocation of the proxy, or the transfer of the ordinary shares in respect of which the proxy is given, unless notice as to any of the aforementioned matters shall have been received by the transfer secretaries not less than 48 (forty eight) hours before the commencement of the General Meeting.

7. If a shareholder does not indicate on this form that his/her proxy is to vote in favour of or against any resolution or to abstain from voting, or gives contradictory instructions, or should any further resolution(s) or any amendment(s) which may properly be put before the General Meeting be proposed, such proxy shall be entitled to vote as he/she thinks fit.

8. The Chairperson of the General Meeting may reject or accept any form of proxy which is completed and/or received other than in compliance with these notes.

9. A shareholder’s authorisation to the proxy including the Chairperson of the General Meeting, to vote on such shareholder’s behalf, shall be deemed to include the authority to vote on procedural matters at the General Meeting.

10. The completion and lodging of this form of proxy will not preclude the relevant shareholder from attending the General Meeting and speaking and voting in person thereto to the exclusion of any proxy appointed in terms hereof.

11. Documentary evidence establishing the authority of a person signing the form of proxy in a representative capacity must be attached to this form of proxy, unless previously recorded by the Company’s transfer secretaries or waived by the Chairperson of the General Meeting.

12. A minor or any other person under legal incapacity must be assisted by his/her parent or guardian, as applicable, unless the relevant documents establishing his/her capacity are produced or have been registered by the transfer secretaries of the Company.

13. Where there are joint holders of ordinary shares:
- any one holder may sign the form of proxy;
- the vote(s) of the senior ordinary shareholders (for that purpose a proxy may delegate his or her authority to act on behalf of a
- any appointment by a shareholder of a proxy is revocable, unless the form of instrument used to appoint such proxy states otherwise;
- if an appointment of a proxy is revocable, a shareholder may revoke it by either (i) inserting an “X” in the relevant block (i.e. by casting it in a “vote”) or (ii) delivering a copy of the revocation instrument to the proxy and to the company; and
- a proxy appointed by a shareholder is entitled to exercise, or abstain from exercising, any voting right of such shareholder without direction, except to the extent that the relevant company’s memorandum of incorporation, or the instrument appointing the proxy, provides otherwise (see note 7).
