What’s a CAFO?
A concentrated animal feeding operation (CAFO) is a factory farm that exclusively raises one breed of livestock for slaughter. The proposed Badgerwood CAFO would confine 26,000 hogs in cramped conditions prone to disease transmission. Facility owners estimate it would produce 6.4 million gallons of liquid manure annually, which would be spread untreated on 1,360 acres of local fields in two watersheds eight times a year. For more information, visit farmsnotfactorieswi.org