Content of each Day

Mary, as Mother of Jesus, can offer us a model for being Christian, for receiving and carrying the gift of Christ Jesus within us as we wait for his final Advent. For this reason she is sometimes called 'the first Christian', being the first person in whom Christ dwelt within. What a surprise, what a gift, and what a joy! Yet it was costly too; bewildering, mind boggling, faith-stretching, and involved accepting travail and testing realities that she never chose yet were deeply earthed in how God desired to reveal his purposes.

This quiet day will explore four movements in Mary's experience as she became the mother of Jesus. There will be four meditative talks, each followed by periods of quiet for personal reflection and prayer, with suggestions and questions to ponder.

You may find it helpful to bring a notebook, Bibles and pens/pencils are available at the Centre.

Revd Graham Pigott is an Anglican priest, now living in Derbyshire, who having retired from parish ministry, continues to lead quiet days, retreats and offer spiritual accompaniment and supervision of accompaniment. He has been enriched through participating in Ignatian spirituality for many years. He enjoys hill walking, being a pilgrim on Camino routes, reading theology and spirituality, and visiting art galleries. He also paints and does printmaking. Some of his artwork can be viewed at www.grahampigott.co.uk
