STREET FOOD

After 10 years of being leaders in the Traverse City food scene, The Cooks' House has taken on a new project: Milkweed Street Food. Let Milkweed host your next get together. Located in Little Fleet, Milkweed can make the food while Little Fleet can take care of the libations. Get the quality you have become accustomed to from The Cooks' House but in the form of street food. Choose your menu and let Milkweed and Little Fleet do the rest.
