Leah Remini has been making headlines recently after being brutally honest about her former religion Scientology and one of the most well known Scientologists in the world, Tom Cruise.

Remini revealed information about Scientology and the former Hollywood couple Tom Cruise and Katie Holmes during her 20/20 interview this past Friday night.

Here are the most shocking revelations from her 20/20 Interview.

1. Remini was “written up” for telling Tom and Katie to Get a Room: An official from the church of Scientology called and said “Tom wants you to come over and teach him salsa dancing.” Leah and her husband Angelo Pagan agreed and went over to his house. While the two couples were at the house, their every move was being watched by two church officials – strange. Leah Remini recalls that night that Tom was forcibly kissing Kate, I said, ‘Hey, get a frickin’ room,’ and I was written up for that.

2. Tom Cruise Sang “You’ve Lost That Loving Feeling” to Katie on their Wedding Night:Remini remembered that during Tom and Katie’s 2006 wedding, Cruise serenaded Katie by singing the hit song from his iconic movie “Top Gun.” Strange that Tom would sing that particular song to his bride...

3. Katie Holmes Filed a Report Against Remini: After the wedding, Katie Holmes apparently wrote a report up about about Remini’s inappropriate behaviour at the wedding. The letter said, “I was dismayed at the behavior of Leah Remini during the events leading up to our wedding and our wedding. The behavior as a guest, a friend, was very upsetting.”

The day of the 20/20 interview, Katie Holmes did release a statement saying:

“I regret having upset Leah in the past and wish her only the best in the future.”

In other words, she neither confirmed nor denied the ‘filed report.’

While Leah blasted Tom and Katie during her 20/20 interview, she seemed to show more support for Holmes during her Good Morning America interview on Monday morning.

Leah also revealed in the GMA interview that one of the main reasons of leaving Scientology was that ‘she didn’t want her daughter to choose the church over her.’ Remini even said in the interview that, “The church becomes the parent in a way, and my role as a parent gets pushed out.”

The King of Queen’s actress seemed to talk less about the ‘Mission Impossible’ star on The View Tuesday morning, explaining, “her book is not all about bashing Tom.” Her book titled “Troublemaker”, revealing her 30 years in Scientology, is out now.
