About The Art of Living:

The Art of Living is one of the world's largest volunteer based, humanitarian and educational Organizations, founded in 1981 by H.H Sri Sri Ravi Shankar. The Art of Living is an educational and humanitarian movement engaged in stress-management and service initiatives. The organization operates globally in 152 countries and has touched the lives of over 370 million people. The Art of Living movement has spread peace across communities through diverse humanitarian projects, including conflict resolution, disaster relief, sustainable rural development, empowerment of women, prisoner rehabilitation, education for all, and environmental sustainability.

The Art of Living Free Schools:

Art of Living Schools started in 1981 with a vision to provide free value based holistic education in a stress free environment to the under privileged. Ved Vignan Maha Vidya Peeth (VVMVP) is a Registered Public Charitable Trust supports the Art of Living Free School for the economically underprivileged in Rural, Tribal and Slum areas in India.

Vision:

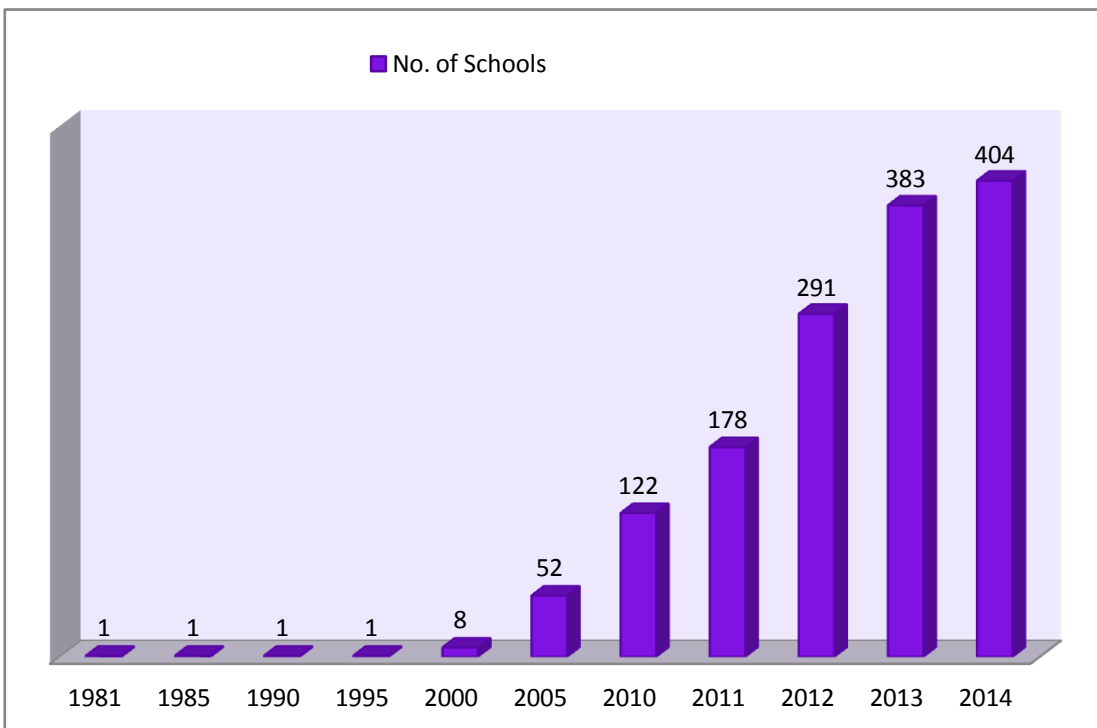

To provide free, value based and holistic education in a stress free environment to the under privileged.

Art of Living Schools Initiative in Rural, Tribal and Slum Areas:

The Art of Living FREE schools started their service initiatives (under the aegis of VVMVP) by providing education to underprivileged rural children in Udayapura Village on the outskirts of Rural Bangalore, Karnataka, in 1981 with 30 students. Today, the schools provide holistic free education to around 40,000 students in 404 schools across 20 states of India in the slum, tribal and rural belts where child labor and poverty are widespread.

Below is the graph which is showing the growth of Art of Living free schools since its inception in 1981
