

EANS RESEARCH COURSE – PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME 22 MARCH 2018 – LADY MARGARET HALL, OXFORD

INTRODUCTION TO NEUROSURGICAL RESEARCH
10:00 – 10:05	Introduction to the Research Course	Radek Rola
10:05 – 10:20	Lecture: Introduction to neurosurgical research.	Jan Willem Berkelbach van der Sprenkel
HOW TO FINANCE YOUR RESEARCH
10:20 – 10:35	Lecture: How can you get funds?	Lorenzo Bello
THE RESEARCH QUESTION
10:35 – 10:55	Invited talk: How should I design a project in order to evaluate a new technique or device?	Peter McCulloch, IDEAL Collaboration Chair
10:55 – 11:15	Invited talk: Considerations and pitfalls when designing registries – is their research output useful?	Fiona Lecky, Research Director of the UK TARN
11:15 – 12:15	Workshop: Critical appraisal of a study. Delegates will critically appraise a paper.	Miikka Korja
12:15 – 12:45	Lunch
12:45 – 13:15	Lecture: How to define a hypothesis?	Angelos Koliass and Gleb Danilov
HOW TO DESIGN A PROJECT
13:15 – 13:30	Invited talk: Designing a project on neuro-imaging.	Stephen Price, PRaM-GBM study CI
13:30 – 15:00	Workshop: Design a protocol for a study. Delegates will work in two small groups and will develop a research project.	All faculty

Continued on the next page

THE EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION
OF NEUROSURGICAL SOCIETIES

15:00 – 15:15	Coffee break
HOW TO PRESENT YOUR RESULTS
15:15 – 15:30	Lecture: How do I write up a paper?	Guy Rosenthal
15:30 – 15:50	Invited talk: What is a good paper? Tips from the editor.	Elena Becker-Barroso, Lancet Neurology Editor
15:50 – 16:50	Workshop: How to give an oral presentation. Two delegates will deliver an oral presentation (their own or one related to a proposed theme) and all delegates will hold a discussion.	Katrin Rabiei and Florian Ringel
AESCLAP EANS RESEARCH PRIZE PRESENTATIONS
16:50 – 18:20	Presentations by the shortlisted 2018 Aesculap EANS Research Prize candidates
18:20 – 18:30	Closing remarks	Radek Rola