BECOME A KEEN TEENS AMBASSADOR
Help inspire today's artistic youth and support the best of Off Broadway theater!

For 16 years, Keen Company has inspired teens through their highly successful Keen Teens Festival. The Festival introduces 30 teens each year from the NY/NJ area to the world of professional theater by:

• Coaching them on how to professionally audition
• Engaging them in 3 new one-act plays on a professional Off Broadway stage
• Offering direction from career theater professionals
• Allowing them to portray original characters for and about teens
• Training them on all aspects of staging professional productions including tech, costumes and stage management

Mark your calendar to attend these great plays, all delivered in one evening with performances between May 20 – 22 at New York City’s Theater Row.
