Alaska Democrats will not use a Presidential Preference Caucus in 2020 and will use a primary system with rank-choice voting for the 2020 Delegate Selection Process.

- A mailing will be sent to every registered Democrat in Alaska on February 19, 2020 explaining how to cast an absentee ballot or vote in-person ballot at a voting center. Information will be made available on the state party website, Facebook page and via email beginning February 19.

- Absentee Ballots must be postmarked by March 24 in order to be counted.

- Primary Day Voting Centers will be open from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 4 for in person voting in at least the following areas:

  * Municipality of Anchorage
  * Fairbanks/North Star Borough
  * City and Borough of Juneau
  * Mat-Su Borough
  * Kenai Peninsula Borough
  * Dillingham
  * Bethel
  * Nome
  * Kotzebue

- Only Democrats can vote in the Party-run presidential preference primary. Each Voting Center will process same day voter registration and changes in party affiliation to Democrat.

- Voting Centers will use paper ballots and be staffed by trained volunteers working with local Democratic Party leadership in each area.

- Initial voting center locations were approved by the ADP Executive Committee on October 2, 2019, additional voting center locations will be approved on November 5th.

- Results will be made publicly available no later than 11:30 p.m. AKDT, April 4, 2020, on the Alaska Democratic Party website.

- Each House District will hold a House District Caucus on Saturday, April 18, 2020 to elect House District officers and delegates representing the house district to the 2020 State Party Convention.

- The Alaska Democratic Party State Convention will be held in Fairbanks May 15-17, 2020. National Delegates will be apportioned based on the results of the April 4 Party-Run Primary. Delegates elected to the State Convention will select the Delegates to the DNC Convention.
