2020 Alaska Presidential Preference Party-Run Primary

Alaska Democrats will use a primary system with rank-choice voting in the 2020 Delegate Selection Process.

- Every registered Democrat in Alaska will receive a postcard in late February explaining how to cast a mail-in ballot or vote in-person ballot at a voting center.

- Every registered Democrat will receive a mail-in ballot, sent to your mailing address on record with the Division of Elections. Deadline to register as a Democrat online is February 18th.

- Absentee ballots can be requested on the www.akdems.org website until February 24th.

- Mail-in ballots will be sent to voters on March 6th.

- All mail-in ballots must be postmarked by March 24 in order to be counted.

- Last-Chance Primary Day Voting Centers will be open from 10 AM to 2 PM for in person voting in the following areas:

  Anchorage • Eagle River • Girdwood • Fairbanks • Healy • Salcha • Juneau • Gustavus • Haines • Skagway • Hyder • Ketchikan • Sitka • Talkeetna • Willow • Wasilla • Big Lake • Delta Junction • Homer • Soldotna • Seward • Kodiak • Unalaska • Iguigig • Dillingham • Bethel • Nome • Kotzebue • Utqiagvik

- Only Democrats can vote in the Party-run presidential preference primary. Each Voting Center will process same day voter registration and changes in party affiliation to Democrat.

- Voting Centers will use paper ballots and be staffed by trained volunteers working with local Democratic Party leadership in each area.

- Results will be made publicly available no later than 11:30 p.m. AKDT, April 4, 2020, on the Alaska Democratic Party website.

- Each House District will hold a House District Caucus on Saturday, April 18, 2020 to elect House District officers and delegates representing the house district to the 2020 State Party Convention.

- The Alaska Democratic Party State Convention will be held in Fairbanks May 15-17, 2020. National Delegates will be apportioned based on the results of the April 4 Party-Run Primary. Delegates elected to the State Convention will select the Delegates to the DNC Convention.
