Re:ACTIVATE Finalists Exhibition
Location: Tūranga, Central Library, 60 Cathedral Square

View the innovative design ideas submitted by junior and senior school students for the Re:ACTIVATE Aspiring Artists Exhibition. It is a proud moment for many of the young artist entrants having their work displayed for the first time. Come along to view these visions of the next generation and support their artistic ambitions. From the submissions on display, the three winners have been produced as large-scale public artworks and are on display throughout the Season 2018 in Hagley Park. Exhibition showing daily during the Season 2018.

Monday 15 October – Friday 19 October

10.30am and 1:00pm daily
Schools Education Programme
Location: Tūranga, Central Library, 60 Cathedral Square

School and community groups can get involved in free art-making activities linked to the New Zealand Curriculum. Reconnect with the city by experiencing SCAPE’s temporary and permanent artworks, which add vibrancy and an exciting element to a changing city. Our classroom is a space for practical art-making activities which support learning about the artworks.

Choose from:

- Work with local Māori artist Piri Cowie on her project Mauri Moana. Students will create their own contemporary adornment piece, based on themes of the moana and Māori culture.
- Explore the sculptural forms of Mixed Feelings, a giant 5.5m tall, bronze sculpture by internationally renowned artist Tony Cragg.
This education resource has been developed in conjunction with Yorkshire Sculpture Park in the UK.

- Paint or model in 3D the brightly coloured bubbles of Seung Yul Oh’s Conduct Cumulus from the South Quad at the Arts Centre of Christchurch.
- Beyond the gallery: figure in nature – investigate the work of Antony Gormley’s two STAY figures.
- Take part in a self-directed or guided tour of the artworks
- Any artwork of interest can have an onsite drawing activity linked with it.

Bookings essential.
