Words and music by Josh Lavender, Mia Fieldes, and Stuart Garrard

V1:

B

I've stood before open heavens at night

Amazed at galaxies alive in the sky

G#m E B

And oh nothing compares to You

B

I've heard the melody of storms as they sing

And caught a symphony composed on the wind

G#m E B

And oh nothing compares to You

CHORUS:

F#

You're all I want

E

And You're all I know

F#

You're all I need

E B

Nothing else comes close

V2:

B

I've known the praise and the honor of men

Enjoyed imaginary crowns on my head

G#m E B

And oh nothing compares to You

B

You are the treasure more than silver and gold

You stand forever in a league of Your own

G#m E B

And oh nothing compares to You

BRIDGE:

Everything else is dust

Everything else is just

Treasure that turns to stone

I'm after You alone
