Item 10: Interactive dialogue on the oral update of the High Commissioner on Ukraine

Oral statement delivered by the International Fellowship of Reconciliation.

Mr. President,

International Fellowship of Reconciliation (IFOR) thanks the High Commissioner and her office for the oral presentation on Ukraine.

We stand in solidarity with the people of Ukraine and mourn with them at this dramatic time of armed conflict.

We stand in solidarity with all war resisters and conscientious objectors to military service in Ukraine as well as in Russia and Belarus and call on the international community to provide them asylum; for instance IFOR sponsored a joint appeal to European Institutions on this matter.

Freedom of thought, conscience and religion is a non-derogable right and, as is freedom of expression, it continues to apply in situations of armed conflict. The right to conscientious objection to military service should be absolutely protected and cannot be restricted as highlighted by the quadrennial analytical thematic report by OHCHR presented at this session.

IFOR is concerned about the violations of this right in Ukraine where general mobilization to the army is enforced without any exceptions for conscientious objectors. Evasion of conscription during mobilization is criminally punishable by imprisonment from 3 to 5 years. The pacifist Andrii Kucher and the evangelical Christian, member of the church “Source of Life” Dmytro Kucherov were sentenced by Ukrainian courts for their refusal to bear arms with no respect to their freedom of conscience.

IFOR is also concerned by the forced mobilization of conscripts in Ukrainian territory controlled by Russian affiliated armed groups.

As previously stated, war should be abolished because it is never a conflict resolution, neither in Ukraine nor in other countries. UN Member States should urgently pursue a diplomatic way to peace negotiations and facilitate such a path which is within the United Nations purposes.

Thank you.
