KAF is the letter K in each. It signifies touch, vulnerability, intimacy. The hand lifted before it is clenched.

3.6.2015; readers: Nicola Masciandaro,

KAF shares its name with mount Qaf, the fabled goal of the Hoopoe and its followers in the Sufi poem The Conference of the Birds.

Connie Mae Oliver, Anais Maviel,

It is half of Kafka, the Czech author of empirical impasse, cruel absurdity.

Dylan Gauthier, Kendra Sullivan, Bowery Poetry Club,

Like the Hoopoe and Kafka's K., we travel by wandering, without preconceived destination.

Tom Haviv, Matvei Yankelevich. Thank you

KAF curates work that moves toward and away from text, work that lives in the space between letters, words, images, bodies, languages.

Talia Levitt, Ciena Leshley, Likando Kumoyo.

か

KAF is an inquiry into the very possibility of itself,

As well as a sustained meditation on the political, geographic and cultural borders that obscure this possibility.
