Mission

The Isabel Sophia Liceaga Discretionary Fund has been established to support the highest priority needs of the School of Architecture and its constituents. To that end, the Head of the School is soliciting project proposals from the faculty that advance the mission and reputation of the School. A strong emphasis will be placed upon projects that critically engage our students. Upon completion of the project, the recipients of funding will be required to make a public presentation of their work to the School community.

Application Submission Requirements

1. Completed application form
 2. One-page project proposal
Project proposals must clearly explain the project and should include, at a minimum, a purpose, research objectives, methods, and materials. The narrative should address the following questions: What are you trying to achieve and why is it important? Does this project or program relate to prior research or projects? How do you see the project impacting your professional/ personal future? How do you see the project impacting the School? How will you present your findings to the School?
 3. One-page plan detailing budget and schedule information

Selection Criteria

- The impact of the proposal in relation to the candidate's career development
 - The impact of the proposal in relation to the mission of the School of Architecture
 - The degree to which the project critically engages the students
 - The candidate's proposed public presentation to the wider School of Architecture community

Selection Process

The Head of the School of Architecture will review the proposals and make the selections. It is anticipated that for 2017 there will be one award made in the amount of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000).
