ALL TRIBES CHRISTIAN CAMP 2017

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF REGISTRATION

Please take the time to carefully review these terms and conditions of registration.

The applicant is in good health, and I grant permission for him/her to participate in all activities at All Tribes Christian Camp (ATCC). I release all individuals and groups associated with ATCC from any liability associated with any accident or sickness experienced by the applicant, with the understanding that the camp staff will be taking reasonable precautions to guard against any situation of this nature.

The parents/guardians submitting this application have legal custody/responsibility for the applicant, and the signature on this form signifies that both parents/guardians are in agreement with the conditions of enrolment. All Tribes Christian Camp provides first aid only. ATCC is authorized to provide medical attention to the applicant, if needed. I agree to accept financial responsibility for any medical expenses in excess of the benefits allowed by Provincial health and/or other insurance plans, where: (a) The health and well-being of the applicant is involved; (b) The medical advice has been such that further service is required; services that require the consent of the parents/guardians; (c) Where all attempts to contact the parents/guardians have failed, or where, due to the nature of the emergency, there is insufficient time to contact such parents/guardians, it shall be at the discretion of the Camp Directors as to what steps are taken for the welfare and safety of the applicant.

The Camp Directors reserve the right to dismiss a camper who is, in his/her opinion, a hazard to the safety and rights of others, or who appears to have rejected the reasonable rules and controls of camp. No refund of camp fees will be made for any reason, including but not limited to dismissal due to disciplinary action, homesickness, late arrival, or early departure. I give permission for All Tribes Christian Camp to use any image or likeness of the applicant for promotional purposes. I consent to allow All Tribes Christian Camp to collect and use information about the applicant for registration, follow-up after camp, and for mailing future camp letters and brochures.
