1. Morel is an accomplished mimic, like his creator Proust. Morel is especially known for imitations of whom?
2. Where is Morel serving at the beginning of the war?
3. How is Cottard dressed now when he attends Mme Verdurin’s parties?
4. What is the only German music to have been heard since the war?
5. Which character is noted for being an anglophile?
6. What considerations dominate all others so far as Charlus is concerned?
7. Why does Mme Verdurin attack Brichot, behind his back?
8. Who is the French general who said on the day that war was declared: “I have been waiting forty years for this day. It is the most glorious day of my life”?
9. What is the device (motto) contained in Charlus’s coat of arms? What does it mean?
10. What word does the butler mispronounce much to Marcel’s annoyance? To what does Marcel attribute his refusal to pronounce the word correctly?