2019/20 DESIGN AND STORY CONTEST

As a warm up to the annual Regional Heritage Fairs, the Historic Sites Association invites Newfoundland and Labrador students in Grades 4 to Level III to enter the Design and Story Contest. Students are asked to choose their story based on the theme “Our Environment: Past and Present”. Draw a picture in the space provided and write a paragraph about their picture.

There will be two winning Design and Story submissions chosen from each region in the province, with a cash prize of $50 award to one student in each age division (Grades 4-8 and Grades 9-12). One overall provincial winner is chosen, and they will receive a $200 cash prize, in addition to having their winning design featured on the official 2020 Heritage Fair t-shirt.

How to Enter:

1. The contest is open to any student attending school or registered home school students in Newfoundland and Labrador in Grades 4 to Level III.
2. Draw a picture in the space provided and write a short paragraph or story about the meaning of your design. The forms are provided below.
3. Entrants can use coloured pencils, felt pens, paints, or you can use another technique that allows for strong colours and solid lines.

The overall winning design will be showcased on the 2020 Heritage Fair T-Shirt for all Regional Heritage Fairs in the province.

The deadline for your submission to the contest is December 1st, 2019. Teachers please send only one entry per student to:
