

Grace Groups Questions

1 Corinthians 9:19-27

Christians are invited to the fullest life;
sharing the belonging found in the gospel.

1. How does the gospel free us from our self-absorption?

It orient toward Christ and others but showing value of others. It also tells us we don't earn, that salvation is not about us, move our view to our Savior instead.

2. Paul models being all things to all people in this text, what would that look like for you in your neighborhood?

Listening more and actually engaging in conversation/relationship with people that don't know Jesus. Investing time and energy in these relationships.

3. Why would sharing in the "blessings of the gospel" be motivation for Christian witness?

It is the power of salvation, and the wonder of it demands to be spread. We can't contain it when we really experience it.

4. How does Jesus finishing his race give us fuel for ours?

We don't have to stress the earning, we are free to live in boldness, empowered by him.

5. What would it look like for us (this group) to be running together practically?

Intentionality in the same direction, with the same groups of people, in the same neighborhoods.
