

Benediction for February 14, 2016

Comforter. Healer.

May your love and mercy guide us through this Lenten season.

May your grace alone carry and sustain us.

We've separated ourselves from you,
hiding behind a thousand walls;
and the time for them to be broken down-
has long since passed.

Storm the gates, O Lord.
Open our hearts to be transformed,
If we only dare surrender,
in humility and hope.

That we might go forth,
today, and each day hereafter,
Bearing ever more of your likeness;
More of who you've made us to be.

This we pray in Your holy name,
worthy of all glory and honor.
Almighty. Risen One. Spirit of Life.
Amen.
