

Benediction for February 26th, 2017
Transfiguration Sunday

O Lord; in your love we are transformed.
Beyond worthiness and unworthiness,
Fidelity and infidelity.

You love us in the morning sun
and in the evening rain.
When our intellect denies it,
When our emotions refuse it,
When our whole being rejects it.

Your love comes without condition or reservation
A love present in this very moment.
Here, and now.
As we are. Not as we should be.

So as we descend from the mountain,
bathed in your light;
Dazzling, and radiant;
Bearing it into the valley below.
May we rest in this truth,
and go forth in renewed hope,

Transformed. Called to transform.
