- DJ agrees to perform DJ services at said time and place in exchange for said price
- Nonrefundable deposit is to be paid to DJ on date of contract signing in order to officially reserve DJ's services on specified event date.
- In the unlikely event that DJ cannot make it to the event (illness, emergency, etc.), DJ will make every effort to find a suitable replacement, as agreed upon by purchaser OR a full refund of payments made will be issued to purchaser.
- In the extreme and highly unlikely event that event is to be canceled, at least 30 days notice must be give to DJ. If, at least, 30 days notice is not given, total balance is to be made to DJ by the originally scheduled date of the event, regardless.
- If event is postponed, purchaser may work with DJ to come up with an alternative date. If there is no alternative date that fits both parties' schedules, total payment must still be made by the originally scheduled date of the event to account for DJ's schedule losses.
