Pastoral Message

CHURCH OFFICE/ SECRETARY AND CUSTODIAN

The Church (Parish) Office in every Greek Orthodox parish is established to assist the Parish Priest; maintain the Parish records (family information, stewardship, etc.); conduct the daily business transactions of the parish; assist the Parish Council; pass on communiqués from the Archdiocese and Metropolis of Chicago; prepare the bulletins; mail announcements/information pertaining to stewardship/finances/parish activity; schedule the Parish Priests appointments.

The Church (parish) Custodian is to prepare the main Church and St. Nektarios chapel for Divine Services and Sacraments throughout the week; to be present and assist the Priest with the various Sacraments; to clean the Priest's office, church office, library, classrooms and restrooms; to bring to the priest's attention anything that may need to be repaired; to make sure we have candles, and other supplies needed for Divine Services; to assist the Offertory Committee with supplies; to cooperate with the parish council.

Needless to say the significance of the Church office/secretary and custodian are not only important but also necessary for the parish to function daily. It is therefore important for everyone to appreciate the service that is offered to our community throughout the year.

When the parish secretary or custodian is employed, he/she is hired to, first, and above all else, assist the priest in all of his daily needs. As the head of the Parish (UPR Article 17, Section 1: The Priest by virtue of his canonical ordination and assignment heads and administers the parish...), the priest has a great many responsibilities daily and therefore his needs take priority over anything else. It is imperative that he have the loyalty, trust, cooperation and confidentiality of the secretary and custodian.

It is a fact that every parish ministry elects their ministry officers, one of which is a secretary; another, a treasurer; another, a corresponding secretary. It is therefore understood that the officers of the individual ministries will assume the responsibilities of their offices, do the work themselves and not rely on the church secretary for things pertaining to their ministry, club or organization.

It is also understood that it is no longer the responsibility of the custodian to maintain the Good Samaritan Cultural Center following a parish ministry event. The catering service keeps the center clean following every event that they host. If a parish ministry wishes to conduct an event without catering services in the center, then they will need to assign members of their organization to set up and clean up.

It is prudent and necessary that the church secretary and custodian stay within the guidelines of their job descriptions. In order to avoid any misunderstanding it is best that any request of them be first brought to the attention of the priest.

If the church secretary or custodian is of our Orthodox Christian Faith and they are attending the Divine Services, it is not appropriate to interfere with their worship.

As Orthodox Christians and a Christian institution, we must always treat the church secretary and custodian with respect, courtesy and a Christian attitude.

It is to be very clear that the church secretary, custodian or any other employee will not act on anything without the approval and blessing of the Priest, who is in his office daily. Please do not take it upon yourselves to ask employees of the parish to do anything above and beyond the responsibilities that are already defined as their primary work.

The Priest, together with the Parish Council, has defined and approved the following responsibilities of the church secretary:

Offices hours Monday-Friday (half day Saturday of Festival);
answering phone;

making appointments;
receiving ministry information for bulletins, preparing and printing bulletins (monthly/weekly), accepting donations from parishioners to be given to the Treasurer;
preparing stewardship offerings for deposit;
entering all donations into offering software;
filing;
retrieving/sorting mail;
entering bills into accounting software; entering deposits into accounting software ensuring the confidentiality of the parishioners in their interaction with the office/priest processing checks for signatures;
typing Father's letters;
copying for Father/office;
accepting/filing stewardship pledges;
preparing eligible voting lists;
financial statements to parishioners at least twice a year;
mailings to parish from Father (Christmas, Pascha, etc.);
keeping member files updated;
forwarding hall inquiries to caterer;
ordering office supplies, candles, etc.;
calling service technicians as needed;
festival paperwork as asked;
reconciling bank statements;
accepting deliveries;
preparing special reports as needed (hall revenue, stewardship, pledges, etc.);
making Father's travel arrangements for Metropolis and Archdiocese conferences posting Father's daily message, monthly bulletin, calendar, events to website

The Priest, together with the Parish Council, has defined and approved the following responsibilities of the church custodian:

- prepare the main Church and St. Nektarios chapel for Divine Services and Sacraments throughout the week;
- to be present and assist the Priest with the various sacraments;
- to clean the Priest's office, church office, library, classrooms and restrooms;
- to bring to the priest's attention anything that may need to be repaired;
- to make sure we have candles, and other supplies needed for Divine Services;
- to assist the Offertory Committee with supplies; to cooperate with the parish council

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation. The Church office, custodian and I will continue to serve the parish with love and mutual respect.

With love in Christ,
✠Fr. George

THE PRIEST AS FATHER AND MOTHER

By Metropolitan of Nafpaktos, Hierotheos

The concept of the priest as father is found throughout Holy Scripture and the works of the holy Fathers. I could add that the notion of 'father' is bound up with that of 'mother'. The spiritual father's behavior toward his spiritual children should have elements of both fatherhood and motherhood, and express both.

The term 'father' is the hypostatic characteristic of the first Person of the Holy Trinity, Who begot the Son before all ages and sends out the Holy Spirit. The second Person of the Holy Trinity is called the Father's Son by nature, and indeed He was obedient to the Father, and became man also by His own will, in order to save the human race. However, since Christ is the Son with Whom the Father was well pleased, according to the Father's voice, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased" (St. Matthew 3:17), He too became a father to Christians who have been reborn through Holy Baptism and Holy Chrismation. In any case, the energy of the Triune God is shared in common by all the Persons. Notwithstanding the hypostatic characteristics of the Persons of the Holy Trinity, the Holy Trinity's outward energy is shared. This means that the creation and recreation of the world and man is the outcome of the shared energy of the Triune God.

Saint Gregory Palamas speaks in one of his homilies about Christ becoming our father through Holy Baptism, whereas through Holy Communion He becomes our bridegroom. Of the fatherhood of Christ he writes: "But He also became our Father through Holy Baptism in His name". When He taught the people, Christ reminded them of the concept of the Father who loves human beings and is concerned about them. He taught us in the Lord's Prayer to address God as Father: "Our Father, which art in heaven..." (St. Matt. 6:9). He urged us to be merciful as our Father is merciful: "Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful" (St. Luke 6:36). He revealed to us that the heavenly Father feeds the birds of the air (St. Matt. 6:26), as He directs the world through His uncreated energies, and also that "your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things" (St. Matt. 6:32). The image of the father who is concerned for his children is well suited to God, Who cares for, and takes an interest in, the children whom He created and recreated. Man is not on his own on earth; he is not a victim of fate.

In Holy Scripture and the Patristic texts God is presented as both father and mother.

We are familiar with the fact that in many texts the term 'Father' is applied to God. However, in the Song of Songs in the Old Testament the image of mother is used for God. It says: "My mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards." (S. of S. 1:6). Saint Gregory of Nyssa, in his commentary on this passage, says that here the image of the mother is applied to God, Who created the world. His actual words are: "There is one cause of all beings, like a mother to them all. Therefore all intelligible beings are brothers one to another". In other words, all beings have a single cause, God, as their mother, and so all intelligible beings are brothers.

Another passage from the Song of Songs reads: "Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart" (S. of S. 3:11). It is clearly shown here that the King (Christ) is crowned by His Mother. Saint Gregory of Nyssa writes in his commentary on this passage, that both names, Father and Mother, are applied to God, because "the divinity is neither male or female". In order to denote God, every name is used, and indeed neither the masculine nor feminine names can sully the meaning of the eternal nature. He writes accordingly: "Because of this every name in existence serves equally to show forth the inexpressible nature, and neither masculine nor feminine names defile the meaning of the immaculate nature."

From everything written by Saint Gregory of Nyssa, it is obvious that there is no distinction between male and female in God. There is no gender in God, since this is an attribute of created human beings, but names such as Father or Mother are human images applied to God by men, corresponding to those energies of God in which they share.

There is passage in which the Apostle Paul speaks about his fatherhood and motherhood in Christ. He writes to the Christians in Corinth: "I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you. For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have given birth to you through the Gospel" (1 Corinthians 4:14-15). A distinction is made here between instructors who teach and the mother who gives birth. The Apostle Paul has a profound awareness that he has given birth to spiritual children, who are, of course, children of God above all. This birth did not come about through human words and worldly wisdom, but by the power of the Gospel. Christian life, therefore, means being born in Christ, and spiritual children are born of a father and mother.

After the time of the Apostles, spiritual fatherhood was ascribed to the Bishops, who succeeded them as shepherds and guides of Christians. We encounter such a tradition, which is of quite early origin, in the epistles of Saint Ignatius the Godbearer. In the Epistle to the Trallians he writes: “Let all reverence the Deacons as Jesus Christ, and also the Bishop as a model of the father, and the Priests as the sanhedrin of God and assembly of the Apostles. Apart from these, there is no Church”. The Constitutions of the Apostles make clear the fact that the Bishop is “the teacher of piety; and, next after God, he is your father, who has begotten you again to the adoption of sons by water and the Spirit”. Fatherhood in Christ is very closely associated with the rebirth of the faithful, which is accomplished within the Church through the sacraments. The Church is a blessed institution, the Body of Christ, which is guided by the Holy Spirit through the Clergy, with the Bishop taking the lead.

With the blessing of the Bishop, the Priests carry out the work of spiritual fatherhood in a local Church and celebrate the sacraments, beginning with Baptism and Chrismation and culminating in the Sacrament of the Divine Eucharist. One of these sacraments is confession, which is the sacrament par excellence of spiritual fatherhood and motherhood, and is regarded as a second baptism.

Within the Church, various people replete with spiritual gifts have also been recognized as spiritual fathers, who received the Holy Spirit, were spiritually reborn and later became suitable instruments for bringing other spiritual children to birth. Someone who has the appropriate spiritual stature and the potential to give birth can bear spiritual children, whereas someone who is spiritually barren is unable to do so. Even in this circumstances, however, spiritual fathers in this latter category can act in spiritual dependence on, and under the guidance of, the Bishops, because no gift bestowed by the Holy Spirit can function in the Church independently of the other gifts or to their detriment.

The Holy Fathers of the Church also possessed this spiritual fatherhood and motherhood, and behaved accordingly towards their spiritual children, whom they regarded as God’s children and not their own. If this is the case with physical parenthood, it ought to apply even more to spiritual fatherhood and motherhood. What Saint Symeon the New Theologian says on this topic, linking spiritual fatherhood with spiritual motherhood, is characteristic.

In an epistle to one of his spiritual children he refers to this concept of the unity between fatherhood and motherhood. “We have conceived you through teaching, we have been in labour with you through repentance, we have given birth to you through much patience, toil, intense pains and daily tears”. We observe here that the characteristics of conception, pregnancy and physical childbirth are applied metaphorically to the corresponding characteristics and action of a spiritual child.

Saint Nikitas Stithatos preserves the response that Saint Symeon the New Theologian’s spiritual child, Arsenios, gave to his mother, who was looking for him at the Monastery. He said, “I have the one who gave birth to me spiritually, from whom I suck the guileless milk of God’s grace every day – my father according to God, who is also called my mother, having given me spiritual birth...”. Referring to this event Saint Nikitas asks, “If the spiritual child is like this, “what must the one who bore him have been like?”

So far we have identified the fact that the spiritual father helps a person on his path towards deification (theosis), on his course from God’s image to His likeness and union with Him. This journey is frequently likened in Patristic texts to the Israelites’ journey from Egypt to the Promised Land, and of course the guidance of God through the Prophet Moses was essential for that journey to succeed. The spiritual father is in the position of Moses and Christians are in the position of the Israelites.

‘ Ο πόλεμος κατά των παθών

Γέροντος Εφραίμ Φιλοθεΐτου

Εύλογημένα μου παιδιά,

Λέγουν οι πατέρες ότι η καρδιά τού ανθρώπου είναι μπλεγμένη με τις ρίζες τών παθών, πού είναι ακανθώδεις, και τήν έχουν «γαντώσει» για τά καλά. Μόλις λοιπόν, επιχειρήσει ο άνθρωπος με τήν φώτισι τού Θεού νά ξερριζώσει ένα πάθος (ουσιαστικά με μεταμορφώσει ένα πάθος), νά αρχίσει νά βγάξει τά ριζίδια, νά τά πιάνη με τήν τσιμπίδα και νά τά τραβάη, ξερριζώνοντας τό πάθος σκίζει και τήν καρδιά! Σχιζόμενη δέ η καρδιά βγάξει αίμα και πονάει. ‘Αν δέν κάνει ο άνθρωπος υπομονή στόν πόνο, σταματάει εκεί και εγκαταλείπει τόν αγώνα και μένει εμπαθής και αμαρτωλός. ‘Αν όμως κάνει υπομονή στόν πόνο, τήν βγάξει τή ρίζα τού πάθους και απαλλάσσεται.

Γι’ αυτό και οι άγιοι πατέρες με τήν άσκησί τους, με τήν φώτισι τού Θεού, με τήν προσευχή κ.λ.π. αγωνίστηκαν και πίεσαν τόν εαυτό τους και ξερριζωσαν σιγά- σιγά τίς ριζίτσες τών παθών, μία – μία τίς έβγαλαν και έφθασαν στην απάθεια. Καί μετά δέν επολεμούντο ούτε από υπερηφάνεια, ούτε από κενοδοξία, ούτε από φθόνο, ούτε από λογισμούς βρώμικους, ούτε από μίσος κ.ά.

Βλέπουμε τούς αγίους νά κάνουνε θαύματα και νά μήν υπερηφανεύοντο καθόλου. Καί λές: «Μά, πώς δέν υπερηφανεύονται αυτοί οι άνθρωποι, εμείς τό παραμικρό κάνουμε και ώπ! Φουντώνει τό κερατάκι και μου λέγει: «Ώ, είσαι μεγάλος, είσαι τρανός, εσύ έκανες αυτό τό έργο, πού άλλος δέν τό κάνει, εσύ όμως τό κάνεις! Κοίταξε εσύ είσαι πιό φωτισμένος, εσύ έχεις πιό πολλή αγωνιστικότητα» κ.λ.π. Καί σου φουσκώνει τώρα τό «εγώ» και προσπαθεί ο διάβολος αυτός νά σου κλέψη τό κέρδος τής προσπάθειας πού έκανες. ‘Όταν κενοδοξή ο άνθρωπος για τό έργο πού κάνει, χάνει τό μισθό του. Μένει η εξωτερική πράξι. ‘Αν μετανοιώσει, ξαναπαίρνει τό κέρδος. Αλλά πώς θά πάρη τό κέρδος; Μέ τήν αυτομεμψία, με τήν αυτοκατηγορία.

Ένας Πατριάρχης Αλεξανδρείας, Θεόφιλος λεγόμενος, πήγε στό όρος τής Νιτρίας στην Αίγυπτο, όπου ήταν οι πιό διάσημοι ασκητές. ‘Ο φημισμένο όρος τής Νιτρίας! Πήγε στόν Πρώτο τού όρους, στόν πιό πνευματικό και προοδευμένο γέροντα και τού λέει: «Πάτερ, τί περισσότερο βρήκες εσύ γενόμενος μοναχός και κατοικώντας σ’ αυτό εδώ τό όρος; Ποιά είναι η μεγαλύτερη αρετή πού βρήκες και ποιά είναι αυτή πού αξίζει πάνω απ’ όλες τίς αρετές;»

Απάντησε εκείνος: «Βρήκα τήν αυτομεμψία, δηλαδή τό νά κατηγορώ τόν εαυτό μου και νά ρίχνω τό βάρος επάνω μου ότι εγώ φταίω «Τό μέμφεσθαι εαυτόν».

‘Ο Μέγας Αντώνιος λέγει: «‘Αν ο άνθρωπος ρίξη τό βάρος επάνω του, βρίσκει ανάπαυσι. Τήν στιγμή πού θά το ρίξη στόν άλλον, θά βρή ταραχή μέσα του».

Δοκιμάστε τό σέ μία περίπτωση, σ’έναν πειρασμό. Πέστε ότι έφαιξε εκείνος, ό άλλος...Αισθάνεσθε ταραχή, ανακατωσούρα μέσα σας, στενοχώρια! Άπαξ και πής: «Δέν φταίει ο άλλος, εγώ φταίω, τί μιλάω τώρα για τόν άλλον, ξέχασα ποιός είμαι εγώ; Εγώ έκανα εκείνο, εκείνο, εκείνο...επομένως νά μή μιλάω καθόλου» ‘Ωπ! Σάν νά προσγειώνεσαι σέ στερεό έδαφος και δέν φοβάσαι με πέσης. Ενώ προηγουμένως ήσουν ψηλά κι έλεγε: «Από δώ θά πέσω, από εκεί θά πέσω» και είχες φόβο και ταραχή. Άπαξ και έπεσε χαμηλά και πάτησε σέ στερεό έδαφος, δέν φοβάσαι.

‘Όταν έρχομαι σέ μία διένεξι μ’έναν άνθρωπο και ο εαυτός μου μού φέρνη αντίστασι, μού λέει ο λογισμός: «Αυτός έφταξε, αυτός θύμωσε, αυτός μού μίλησε, αυτός πρέπει νά ταπεινωθή. Άν μού μιλούσε τέλος πάντων πιό οικονομικά και πιό απαλά, εγώ θάκανα υπομονή και δέν θά σκανδαλιζόμουν. Άρα φταίει αυτός». Νά, τό πάθος τού εγωϊσμού. Πρέπει νά αντισταθούμε και νά πούμε: «Όχι, όχι, άν εγώ δέν είχα εγωϊσμό, δέν θά πειραζόμουν. Άρα εγώ φταίω, δέν φταίει ο αδελφός. Άν είχα τεπείνωσι, θά σκεπτόμουν ότι στεφάνι μού προξενείται κι ότι ο καυστήρας τού Ιησού είναι αυτός ο άνθρωπος, γιατί καυτηριάζει τό πάθος μου, γιά νά γίνω υγιής! Άρα μέ ευεργετεί τώρα καυτηριάζοντας τό πάθος μου. Είναι ευεργέτης μου! Πρέπει νά τόν αγκαλιάσω, πρέπει νά τόν αγαπώ, πρέπει νά τού κάνω και προσευχή πού μού έκανε αυτό τό καλό, πού μού φανέρωσε τί έχω! Διότι άν δέν μού έλεγε αυτόν τόν λόγον, κι άν δέν γινόταν ο πειρασμός, εγώ δέν θά ήξερα πόσο εγωϊσμό είχα μέσα μου και δέν θά έκανα και τόν ανάλογο αγώνα νά τόν χτυπήσω. Έπομένως μέ τήν νύξι τού πειρασμού φανερώθηκε η ασθένειά μου και τώρα αφού τήν είδα, θά φροντίσω νά βάλω φάρμακο και νά γίνω καλά».

Πρέπει, λοιπόν, ο άνθρωπος αφού πιάση τό θέμα μέ τήν θεωρία, νά αγωνισθή τώρα εσωτερικά. Πρέπει νά κατέβη, νά εντοπίση τό κακό στήν καρδιά, και νά πολεμήση τό πάθος, τήν πικρία, τήν δυσκολία, τήν πίεσι τού δαίμονος, ο οποίος πιέζει τήν κατάστασι και λέει: «Μήν υποχωρήσης! Μήν τό κάνης αυτό!» Καί τότε πρέπει νά δεηθή τού Θεού ο άνθρωπος, νά παρακαλέση τόν Θεό, νά πάρη δύναμι, νά «στραμπουλήξη» τό εγώ, νά πή, «σιώπα, κάτσε στήν θέσι σου, κι εγώ πρέπει νά κάνω τό καθήκον μου τώρα». Νά πάη στόν άλλον, νά βάλη μετάνοια. Εμείς οι μοναχοί, φερ' ειπείν, βάζομε μετάνοια. Ο κατά κόσμον άνθρωπος φέρεται διαφορετικά, θά πή: «καλημέρα, χρόνια πολλά, συγχώρεσέ με, θά κοινωνήσουμε, άγια μέρα ήρθε κ.λ.π.», κι έτσι γίνεται αγάπη.

Όταν τό κάνη κανείς αυτό τό πράγμα, αμέσως νοιώθει μιά χαρά, μιά ξεκούρασι, μιά ελάφρυνσι. Γιατί; Γιατί ήταν βάρος τό προηγούμενο, ήταν ο δαίμονας πού πίεζε περισσότερο, γιατί ήθελε νά γίνη τό δικό του, τό μίσος, η έχθρα, ο χωρισμός, η διάστασις. Ενώ ο Θεός είναι αγάπη και ταπείνωσι.

Minutes of Parish Council Meeting
December 10, 2013

Opening:

The President called the meeting to order at 7:10 PM with a quorum met. The meeting began with a prayer led by Rev. George Konstantopoulos.

Members Present:

President: Hristos Kirgios; Vice President: Tina Assimos; Treasurer: Pano Arvanitis; Secretary: John Madias; Nick Giannakakis, Alex Himonas, Kelly Popyk, Chris Strafford and Mary Jo Tirikos.

Members Absent:

Bill Giannakakis, Tom Limberopoulos, Dr. George Mighion and Pete Mattheos.

Guests: SCI Alarm, Inc. (Tony Closson)

There have been several issues with the current alarm system most notably that the Fire Department has been inadvertently contacted. Tina Assimos contacted SCI Alarm (not the current Alarm Company) to review the system, make recommendations and provide a quotation.

Mr. Closson summarized his review of the current system. He believed most of the issue was caused by a worn Panel next to the main entrance. He submitted a quote for $1,000 to replace the Panel, provide a Battery Back-up and Keypad. In addition, the existing alarm components will be used. SCI will test existing components and replace any existing components that do not function properly on a time and material basis upon owner's approval (not included in the quote). Lastly, the cost for monitoring is $26 per month and their labor rate is $65/hour.

Several questions and requests from the Council were presented to Mr. Closson. As a result, Mr. Closson will provide a quotation for replacement of the Panel in the downstairs hall, review the sensors in the Festival Building, provide the quotation to monitor the Alarm System via Smartphone and provide the quotation for a Four-Camera Exterior monitoring system to be viewed from the Church Office. Tina will be in contact with Mr. Closson to get the additional quotations.

Approval of Minutes:

The minutes of the November 2013 meeting were reviewed.

- 1) Hristos mentioned that Lemacks was misspelled and that will be corrected.
- 2) Tina's update regarding liens will be removed from the November minutes and be part of the December minutes (it occurred after the meeting).

Chris Stratford moved to accept the minutes as written with the proposed corrections. Pano Arvanitis seconded the motion. All were in favor.

Treasurer's Report:

Pano reviewed the November 2013 Treasurer's Report.

- 1) P9: Stewardship for November was above Budget by approximately $1,300.
- 2) P9: St. Andrew Day was above Budget by approximately $348.
- 3) P10: The cost for Postage was approximately $780 more than what was budgeted. Pano will review with Amber to determine the reason(s).

4) P12: Overall, November 2013 was $2,395.69 in the black and YTD November stands at $12,218.45 above Budget.

A question was raised regarding the Capital Improvement figure on Page 1. It was learned that a majority of that amount has been specifically dedicated to boiler replacement. The comment was made that the specific amounts should be more obvious. Pano will add a line item titled Boiler Replacement in addition to the Capital Improvements line item.

Nick Giannakakis moved to accept the Treasurer's Report. Mary Jo Tirikos seconded the motion. All were in favor.

Pastor's Report:

1. Father commented how the visit from Bishop Demetrios and the luncheon downstairs after the Divine Liturgy went very well. The atmosphere was very warm and very friendly. Father recommended that future visits should have the luncheon downstairs vs. going somewhere for lunch. Father did comment that a specific price for the meal should be done. A good will donation system was used this time and the total expenses were not covered.
2. Father reminded everyone that the Christmas Pageant is this Sunday. It is an important event for those planning and participating in the event. Father encouraged Parish Council members to attend as an example for all parishioners.
3. Father announced that the Christmas Divine Liturgy will be on Christmas morning and not Christmas Eve per discussion with the Bishop.

- 3) Four Seasons that did the Valpo Church cancelled their meeting and will meet at a later time.
- 4) BTS Geo-Thermal: Nick met with them. They have to bring in additional people to review the Church and it appears it will take some time before receiving their quote.

Old Business:

A) Lemacks: Tina reported that she went to the County Office and determined there were no other liens against the Church from other sub-Contractors. In addition, Chenoweth Roofing Inc. filed only intent and had 90 days to file the lien “officially”. Chenoweth never filed the lien, so there are no liens against the Church.

There was some discussion in regards to the reasons the warranty was voided. Hristos was going to contact our new lawyer (George Lepeniotis) to investigate further.

E) Ushers to manage candle purchases during the Divine Liturgy: Hristos mentioned that this would begin with the first of the year in January.

New Business:

Protocol for Inviting Orthodox Clergy to Sacraments

It should be noted that if you are inviting an Orthodox Priest or Bishop to participate in a sacrament (Baptism, Wedding or Funeral) the following is the proper protocol to follow:

1. Before an invitation is extended to the visiting clergy, you should FIRST get permission from your parish priest to do so.
2. If the invited clergy accepts the invitation, he should then extend a courtesy call to the parish priest to express his desire to participate in the sacrament or funeral service.
3. If the visiting clergy is serving a Metropolis other than the one where the sacrament is taking place, he will need to secure permission to participate in the sacrament from his home Metropolis AND the Metropolis he will be entering (Chicago). This is the current policy of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America and all Metropolises.

4. Once the invite has been extended and accepted the family inviting the visiting clergy MUST assume all expenses associated with the visit, i.e. traveling, hotel, stipend, etc.

The above procedures are to be followed throughout the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America.

Non-Orthodox clergy may be invited to ATTEND the sacrament, but they may NOT PARTICIPATE

Wedding Information

A NECESSARY REQUIREMENT: No wedding can be booked with the church office UNTIL the prospective couple meets with Father George. The Orthodox parishioner must make an appointment for the couple to discuss the marriage ceremony and various documents needed for the wedding to take place at the parish.

Everyone is asked to remember, that although weddings are happy occasions, we should still be respectful of the fact we are in Church. For rehearsals everyone should be dressed appropriately for church. Wedding gowns should not be sleeveless or strapless unless there is a jacket to go over it. The same for bridesmaids' dresses. If you are using the Church facilities to dress, please clean them up when you are finished. We should also remember to be respectful; no clapping after the ceremony, no loud voices, only Orthodox liturgical music and the traditional wedding march is allowed. The receiving line should be outside the building not the Narthex or Church proper. NO RICE ALLOWED INSIDE THE CHURCH.

Days when Marriage is not permitted:

No Wednesdays or Fridays, September 14, December 13-25, January 5-6, Great Lent and Holy Week, Pascha (Easter), Eve of Pentecost, Pentecost, August 1-15 August 29. Any exceptions are made only with the permission of the respective hierarch.

Affidavit for License to Marry:

The Affidavit should be submitted to the Department of Registry, Metropolis of Chicago NO LESS THAN FOUR MONTHS prior to the anticipated date of wedding. In rare cases of absolute necessity only, the Metropolis will allow communication by facsimile to request permission to marry. In that the required documents have been mailed. By oikonomia, permission may be given under the full responsibility of the Priest.

Required Information: The exact date of the wedding, exact birth dates and baptism dates, the city, state and country of birth, religion, occupation, date of moving into the Metropolis of Chicago, and the Archdiocese Card number or parish receipt number (for the Orthodox partner) are ALL required. Any previous marriage must be noted, as well as the date of completing the form. THE AFFIDAVIT WILL BE RETURNED WITHOUT PERMISSION TO PERFORM THE WEDDING IF ANY OF THESE ARE NOT COMPLETED. Both the first and last names of the bride and groom should be recorded in BOTH GREEK AND ENGLISH if they are of Greek descent.

For the Bride: the last name should be her family name or that of a previous spouse. The name of a present spouse should never be used, even if she does use it due to a civil marriage, because the wedding has not yet taken place ECCLESIASTICALLY.

Required Documentation:

1. A certificate that the person is free to marry is required for anyone who has come from another Metropolis after the age of 16. If from another country, this must be issued from the Metropolis in which the person was born and NOT from the parish or community. If from another Metropolis of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America, this must be issued from the home parish and verified by the local Metropolitan. Originals ONLY; fax or photocopy is UNACCEPTABLE.
2. If widowed, a certificate of death of the spouse from the previous Orthodox marriage is required.

3. If ecclesiastically divorced, the ORIGINAL divorce Decree is required. If civilly divorced from a non-ecclesiastical marriage, the Priest must see the civil divorce to verify it, but it does not need to be submitted.
4. Form 165 must be submitted by each petitioner if any previous marriage has taken place, be it ECCLESIASTICAL or CIVIL.
5. In any case where one of the two applicants is a non-Orthodox Christian, a photocopy of the person's baptismal certificate must be provided. In the case where the party does not belong to one of the Christian communions, whose baptism is known to be Trinitarian in formula, then a statement from his/her church verifying the fact that the baptism was performed in the Name of the Holy Trinity must be included, along with photocopy certificate, or a signed statement from the petitioning Priest, verifying baptism was Trinitarian in formula.
6. Written consent is required of BOTH parents for any bride or groom under 18 years of age.

A cashier's check or money order made payable to the "Metropolis of Chicago" for $100 filing fee is required to go with the paperwork.

ITEMS NECESSARY FOR THE MYSTERION OF MARRIAGE

1. Civil license
2. Ecclesiastical license
3. Crowns and two candles
4. Wedding bands (rings)
5. The koumbaro(a) must be in good standing with the Church i.e., must be "baptized and chrismated according to the rites of the Orthodox Church. The religious, moral and social duties of a parishioner are to apply the tenets of the Orthodox Faith to his/her life and to: adhere to and live according to the tenets of the Orthodox faith; faithfully attending the Divine Liturgy and other worship services; participate regularly in the holy sacraments; respect all ecclesiastical authority and all governing bodies of the Church; be obedient in matters of the Faith, practice and ecclesiastical order; contribute towards the progress of the Church's sacred mission; and be an effective witness and example of the Orthodox Faith and Traditions to all people...be current in his or her stewardship and other financial obligations to the Parish." (Uniform Parish Regulations of the Holy Archdiocese of America). If he/she is a member of another Orthodox parish they MUST bring a letter of good standing from his/her parish priest.

6. Please Note: If the koumbaro(a) was married and divorced civilly but NOT ecclesiastically they CANNOT participate in the sacrament of marriage or any other sacrament of the Church.
7. Orthodox Christians who have absented themselves from the Church for many years deliberately cannot consider themselves in good standing with the Church. Before participating in any of the sacraments he/she must first meet with the parish priest and enter the Church through the sacrament of Holy Confession and Penance.
8. "No person shall be deemed a parishioner in good standing while: NOT adhering to the standards outlined in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article; retaining affiliation in an Orthodox Parish which defies the jurisdiction of the ecclesiastical authority of the Archdiocese; being a member or practicing a non-Orthodox faith or other religion; and deliberately disregarding and transgressing the moral law of the Church"(Article 18, Section 3 of the UPR).

Ecclesiastical Divorce

Petitions for Ecclesiastical Divorce must include 5 items:

1. The Petitioner's Application. This should include all the requested information, especially the phone numbers and zip codes of both the petitioner and spouse, and their birthplaces. The petitioner should explain why the marriage deteriorated in their own words.
2. The Statement of the Petitioning Priest
3. The Original Certificate of Marriage. Since they are divorcing, they no longer need the original. (They may retain photocopies.) If the Original is lost, an Official Transcript issued by the parish in which the wedding took place is acceptable.

4. The Decree of Dissolution of Marriage issued by the Civil Court. This document will be retained by the Metropolis Office.
5. A money Order or Cashier's Check of $200 made payable to the "Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago." Personal checks are NOT acceptable. The Petitioner must be a steward (supporting member) of the local parish of the current year.

REMINDERS;

- A. The Petitioner is expected to attend a hearing before the Spiritual Court at the Metropolis in Chicago. The other spouse is also invited to attend the Spiritual Court.

- B. Under NO circumstances plan or arrange a marriage until the Ecclesiastical Decree of Divorce is IN HAND
- C. Divorce petitions can ONLY be submitted by the Parish Priest.
- D. Anyone who has NOT received the Ecclesiastical Divorce is NOT permitted to receive any of the Sacraments, be a sponsor at a baptism or koumbaro/koumbara at an Orthodox wedding.

PLEASE NOTE: It is understood that the Orthodox couple that is experiencing marital difficulties will make it a point to meet with their Parish Priest to confront their differences from a spiritual perspective and to find out if there is any possibility of a reconciliation and to better understand why the marriage deteriorated before they file for a Civil Divorce.

After the Ecclesiastical Divorce has been issued the Petitioning spouse is expected to participate in the Mysterion (Sacrament) of Holy Confession before resuming participation in Holy Communion. In accordance with prevailing practice of the Church, as directed by the very words of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, "Whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery." (Matt. 5:32) An ecclesiastical divorce is granted first of all only because of adultery. In such cases, the divorce is given only to the wronged party, not to the party that betrayed the marital trust or brought dishonor to the marriage. St. Paul the Apostle says, "If a woman should separate from her husband for the reason of adultery, let her remain single." (Corinth. 7:11). The same thing holds true, of course, for the husband who is guilty of adultery.

It is true that our Church has decided, through compassion and for reasons of "oikonomia" that a second marriage is permitted in certain cases but only after an ecclesiastical divorce is rendered to dissolve the first one. But the Church also remembers that there are certain instances when a second marriage is never permitted.

This is especially true for a marriage that will lead to derision and complete derision and complete defilement of the sanctity of this sacrament.

To keep you properly informed and instructed, we are enumerating below the instances in which our Church, with great sorrow and pain is forced to dissolve a legal and canonically contracted marriage. Divorce is given is given and considered valid:

1. Adultery
2. Apostasy
3. Bigamy
4. Deceit, coercion, fear, mental emotional and physical abuse
5. Mental illness
6. Impotency or sexually transmitted disease (kept secret prior or during marriage)
7. Abortion
8. Conspiring against the life or honor of one's spouse
9. Lengthy separation or abandonment of spouse
10. When one of the spouses is lawfully convicted or imprisoned for a lengthy period of time.
11. Immoral behavior with others.
12. Various addictions which lead to the destruction of harmonious family relationships.
13. Refusal of childbearing.

Non-Petitioning Spouse's Request for Official Copy

After the Ecclesiastical Divorce has been issued, the spouse may also request an official copy of the decree through his/her Parish Priest. A simple written request should be submitted to the Priest by the spouse, along with a money order of $200.00, payable to the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago.

The issuance of the copy is NOT AUTOMATIC; depending on the circumstances of the divorce, it is possible for the request NOT to be granted.

It is most important to remember that the Ecclesiastical Decree should be kept in safe place since it CANNOT be replaced or reissued. The Original Decree will be REQUIRED should he/she decide to remarry.

Baptismal Information

“Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit...” (St. Matthew 28:19) Jesus also says, “I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he CANNOT enter the kingdom of God” (St. John 3:50.) If we had only these two statements of Our Lord to rely upon, we would know clearly that Baptism is a necessity for salvation, and that it is the duty of Orthodox Christians to lead others to it.

It is apparent from the New Testament evidence that there are four (4) primary dimensions to the event of Baptism:

1. In Baptism we are made partakers of the Divine Nature. Therein, we are incorporated into the death and resurrection of Christ and are made one with Him.
2. In baptism, we are cleansed of our previous sinfulness. We are brought into a new state of being with regard to God: “...but you are washed, you are sanctified, but you are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of God (1 Cor. 6:11).
3. Baptism is a new birth, making us new men and women. The new birth comes through “water and the Spirit.” It is given “...according to His mercy...by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Spirit...(Titus 3:5)
4. Baptism is an enlightenment, an illumination, a movement from the darkness of fallen mankind into union with “the true Light which gives light to every man coming into the world” (St. John 1:9). The early holy Fathers of the Church almost always referred to Baptism as “illumination.”

SPONSORS OR GODPARENTS:

At baptism we have sponsors or godparents who must be of the Orthodox Christian Faith since they undertake to assist in the religious nurture of the child. The sponsor should be a practicing Orthodox Christian who realizes that he/she must keep in touch with his/her godchild and help him or her grow in the Orthodox Christian faith especially by his/her own godly example. A potential sponsor or godparent should go to Confession before participating in the Sacrament of Holy Baptism. Also the sponsor should be present at the 40 day blessing of the child along with the child’s parents.

Please Note: When one baptizes a child in the Orthodox Church, both the parents and the sponsor make a commitment to raise the child in the Orthodox Church. For children out of wedlock (outside of an Orthodox marriage), both the Orthodox and non Orthodox parent must be willing and consent to the baptism and willing to raise the child in the Orthodox Christian Faith.

ITEMS NEEDED FROM THE GODPARENTS:
A Letter of Good Standing from their parish priest with the parish seal, stating he/she is a member in good standing, SPIRITUALLY and financially.
Lathopana (large white sheet, non-absorbent to retain oil on child), one white bath towel, two white hand towels, white undershirt & diaper for infant (white underwear for older child), bathing suit for older child, small container of olive oil, bar of soap, large white decorated candle, two smaller white candles, Orthodox cross with chain and the child’s Orthodox Christian name.

Immediately following the Baptism:

1. The Sponsor receives the infant in his/her outstretched arms upon which the large white sheet lays and does NOT cover the children until the child has been chrismated by the Priest.
2. There are 4 lathopana (oil undergarments);
 - a. The oil sheet
 - b. The oil hat
 - c. The oil undershirt
 - d. The oil underwear or cloth diaper

Please Note: The lathopana (oil cloth garments) are made of the purest cotton fabric which does NOT absorb the holy oil that the child has been anointed with during the Sacrament of Baptism. It is important that the holy oil stay on the body of the child as long as possible.

This is why the baptized child should not be bathed for three (3) days following his/her baptism. And when bathed, the water should NOT be discarded in the sewer but should be collected and poured in a large body of water, i.e. river, lake, sea. When the cloth diaper is soiled by the child it should be washed separately and after that the parent may replace it with a regular disposable diaper.

It is also the Orthodox tradition to save the white sheet used at Baptism and not used for any other purpose.

The white sheet is symbolic of the shroud of the baptized person and it is used once again at the burial of that Orthodox Christian when that day comes.

Baptisms may not be performed on the following days unless it is absolutely necessary and permission is obtained from the Diocesan Bishop:

December 25-January 6,

Holy Week,

Major Feast Days of the Lord.

FROM THE PARENTS: A cashier's check or money order made payable to the "Metropolis of Chicago" for $50 is due the day of Baptism

Baptismal Pamphlets are available for $1.50 each

The Pastoral Care of the Sick

The pastoral care of the sick and dying has always been an integral part of the Church's mission entrusted to it by its Divine Founder: "I was sick and you visited me" (Saint Matthew 25:36). This ministry (diakonia) finds sacramental expression in the rites of anointing. Saint James the Holy Apostle writes in his epistle: "Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the presbyters of the Church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven" (St. James 5:14-15).

It is important to understand that an Orthodox Christian must always be spiritually prepared for the unexpected and spiritually in "good standing" in order to receive the Mystera (Sacraments) of the Church. Also, that he or she request the sacraments i.e., Holy Communion or Holy Unction while he/she is still conscious and understands what he/she is receiving.

An unconscious or comatose person cannot receive the sacraments. In those cases the priest may offer prayers.

The necessary Mysterion or Sacrament for the Orthodox Christian at risk of dying is the sacrament of Penance and Confession because it requires repentance and through it one receives forgiveness of sins. There is no repentance after death.

There is NO "last rites" or "extreme unction" in our Church. Therefore, there is no need for family members of a dying person to become anxious at a dying relative. Your parish priest brings and offers the sacraments to all who are sick when he visits them at the hospital or home. This does not mean that you shouldn't call your priest to be there, only that the person has received the sacraments and is spiritually prepared. The priest is always available for the person and the family

Funeral Information

When a loved one dies, please contact Father George immediately and he will come pray a Trisagion with the family at the bedside of the deceased before his/her body is taken to the mortuary in preparation for the funeral.

In consultation with Father and the funeral home, set the days and times for the viewing, Trisagion and Funeral Service.

The Trisagion is a brief service, not more than 10 minutes in length, during which we pray that the Lord will grant forgiveness of sins and rest to the soul of the deceased "in the bosom of Abraham" (Luke 16:22-23) with Christ and the saints where "there is no pain, no sorrow and no suffering" (Rev. 21:4)

The Orthodox Funeral Service is held at the Church and is normally about an hour long. The Funeral Service consists primarily of the singing of verses from Psalm 119, a series of hymns on the meaning of life and death composed by St. John of Damascus (676-749AD), Scripture readings from St. Paul's 1st letter to the Thessalonians (4:13-18) and the Gospel of John (5:24-30) and a brief homily/eulogy by the priest.

Commonly, the priest will meet the family with the casket outside the church and escort the deceased into the nave.

The casket will be placed on the solea facing East (feet towards the altar). The Orthodox Tradition is to have an open casket during the Funeral Service to acknowledge the reality of death and allow for last respects. The hope and joy of the resurrection is expressed in the priest wearing white vestments during the service. The priest prays the service and the worshippers are encouraged to join in the singing of the hymns and the responses. After the final prayer, the priest usually offers a sermon to share the inspirational message of Christ's teaching regarding life, death and eternal life. He will also incorporate, where appropriate, important aspects of the deceased's life to further personalize the message. (Point of information: our Tradition as Orthodox Christians is that only the priest offers the eulogy during services in Church. Family members and friends who wish to speak and share memories may do so at the Makaria.)

At the conclusion of the service, everyone present at the service is invited to come forward and kiss an icon of the Resurrection and offer their final respects to the deceased. (Point of information: The family should be allowed a few minutes for a private goodbye. Everyone is asked to leave the Church proper and exit into the Fellowship Hall and remain quiet for the family to do so.)

The priest anoints the body in the form of cross will oil and earth reciting several verses from Scripture: "Wash me with hyssop and I shall be pure; cleanse me and I shall be whiter than snow" (Psalm 51:7) and "You are dust and unto dust you shall return" (Genesis 3:19). He then escorts the deceased out of church with the family and others following behind.

According to the Holy Orthodox Tradition and practice, the deceased is covered with a shroud, which has been blessed. Please contact the office if you should need one.

Following the Funeral Service held at the church the deceased is taken to the cemetery where another Trisagion is prayed at the graveside. The deceased is then lowered into his/her grave to await the Second Coming of Christ and, as we confess in the Creed at every celebration of the Liturgy, "the resurrection of the dead and the life of the age to come."

Makaria or Meal of Blessing: Following the graveside service it is customary to invited everyone to a meal called, in Greek, the Makaria. (If you would like to use the Good Samaritan Cultural Center for the Makaria, please contact Callahan's Catering at 574-903-6272.) Our Tradition as Orthodox Christians is for the main dish at the Makaria to be some kind of plaki (broiled fish). This is because the first meal the Lord Jesus ate with His disciples following His Resurrection consisted of broiled fish and bread, as recorded in John 21:12-13. As this meal is a reminder of Christ's Resurrection and His closeness to those who believe in Him, it is NOT appropriate to serve meat.

Regarding Cremation: Because the Orthodox Faith affirms the fundamental goodness of creation, it understands the body to be an integral part of the human person and the temple of the Holy Spirit, and expects resurrection of the dead. The Church considers cremation to be the deliberate desecration and destruction of what God has made and ordained for us. Therefore, the Church does not grant funerals, either in the sanctuary or at any other place, to persons who have chosen to be cremated. Additionally, memorial services with kollyva are not allowed in such instances.

Regarding Suicide: Suicide, the taking of one's own life, is self-murder and as such, a sin. More importantly, it may be evidence of a lack of faith in our loving, forgiving God. If a person has committed suicide as a result of a belief that it is rationally or ethically defensible, the Orthodox Church denies that person a Church funeral, because such actions and beliefs separate a person from the community of faith.

The Church shows compassion, however on those who have taken their life as a result of mental illness or severe emotional stress, when a condition of impaired rationality can be verified by a physician.

Important Please Note: According to our Holy Orthodox Christian Tradition, all Orthodox Christians in spiritual good standing with the Church must be given a funeral service conducted in the local parish. The wishes of the deceased or family play no part in whether their loved one has a church funeral service or service in a funeral home chapel. The family needs to abide by the Orthodox Tradition and order of the Church. Again, according to our Orthodox Tradition there is no option or exception to this practice.

Please Note: Orthodox Christians who are NOT in good standing, i.e., not married in the Orthodox Church, have not received an Ecclesiastical Divorce, etc, may only have a complete funeral service at the funeral home chapel. The deceased is not brought to the church for the funeral service. The following items are needed: a table with a white tablecloth, 2 candlesticks with white candles, podium, microphone and an Icon of the Resurrection. All other items will be brought by Father.

Funerals cannot be held on Sundays or Holy Friday
Shrouds are available through the Church Office..

The Sacred Memorials for the Dead

Therefore, brethren, stand fast and hold the traditions which you were taught, whether by word or our epistle”
(2 Thes. 2:15).

Prayers and Memorials:

“With the saints give rest, O Christ, to the souls of thy servants, where there is neither sickness, nor sorrow, nor sighing, but life everlasting.” So the Holy Orthodox Church prays for the faithful departed; and again: “O God of spirits and of all flesh, who has trampled down death and overthrown the Devil, and given life unto Thy world: Do Thou, the same Lord, give rest to the souls of Thy departed servants, in a place of light, refreshment, and repose, whence all pain, sorrow, and sighing have fled away. Pardon every transgression which they have committed, whether by word or deed or thought”.

Orthodox are convinced that Christians here on earth have a duty to pray for the departed, and they are confident that the dead are helped by such prayers. “In God and in His Church there is no division between the living and the departed, but all are one in the love of the Father.

Whether we are alive or whether we are dead, as members of the Church we still belong to the same family, and still have a duty to bear one another’s burdens. Therefore just as Orthodox Christians here on earth pray for one another and ask for one another’s prayers, so they pray also for the faithful departed and ask the faithful departed to pray for them. Death cannot sever the bond of mutual love which links the members of the Church together.” That Christian love endures is certain and strong even after death (1 Cor 13:8). Because our love remains, the Holy Orthodox Church has from the beginning established the practice of saying special prayers for those who have fallen asleep in the Lord, and on certain specified days it has memorials for them.

According to Saint John Chrysostom even the Holy Apostles had established the practice of prayers and memorials. According to Saint John of Damascus, the Disciples of the Savior and Holy Apostles are the ones who decreed that we remember the faithful who have fallen asleep in the Lord at the awesome holy and life giving mysteries.

The Church recognizes several days as formal commemoration that are:

1. THE FOUR SOUL SATURDAYS. These Saturdays are set aside by the Church for all Orthodox Christians, three during the Holy and Great Lent and one for the Saturday before Pentecost.
2. THE THREE-DAY MEMORIAL. The Apostolic Constitutions recommend that memorials for the dead be served with psalms and readings and prayers on the third day after death of our beloved one, on account of the Lord Jesus who rose after three days. Another reason for the three day memorial is the notion that the deceased has kept the three virtues (the foundations of our faith) faith, hope and love as well as the fact that man acts and expresses himself with actions, words and thoughts.

3. NINE-DAY MEMORIAL. The Apostolic Constitutions also prescribe Memorials on the ninth day as a reminder of the living and of the dead, as well as on the fortieth day after death according to ancient practice. Saint Symeon of Thessaloniki attributes the nine-day memorial to the nine Orders of Holy Angels.
4. FORTY-DAY MEMORIAL. This memorial is for the Ascension of the Savior that took place forty days after His third day Resurrection. In addition to these we must have annual Memorials in remembrance of the deceased.

Please Note: Memorials may be held at three, six, and twelve months interval. MAKARIA (BLESSING): When one talks about memorials in the Orthodox Church it is inevitable that the issue of Makaria (blessing) and Kollyva will also be discussed. In the early Christian times, bread, wine, and olives or cheese or rice were offered. The offering of these gifts served the purpose of CHARITY (Philanthropia) and those who partook of them would pray: Blessed be his/her memory. This is why they were called Makaria and their origin can be found at the meals or the funeral meals of which the Apostolic Constitutions speak. It has nothing to do with the so called “honor” to the deceased.

Sometime during the middle of the 4th century the Kollyva (boiled wheat) prevailed over the other gifts, as they project a profound didactic symbolism. They symbolize the resurrection from the dead of the bodies. “Most assuredly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain” (St. John 12:24). Saint Symeon of Thessaloniki observes that in the Kollyva we add various other seeds (raisins, walnuts, almonds, sesame, and so on). However, the basic ingredient is always wheat because the Savior Himself likened His All Holy Body and His resurrection to wheat (St. John 12:24).

BENEFITS OF MEMORIALS AND PRAYERS

We all know that when one dies that is the end for correcting mistakes, errors, and having a change of heart for the things that we did while alive. Why then do we as Orthodox Christians pray and have memorials for the souls of the departed? It is a critical question and indeed it has been addressed by many Holy Fathers of the Church.

All our prayers and memorials are petitions on behalf of the dead to God because we believe in His infinite mercy loving kindness and philanthropy as well as compassion.

Our courage for asking is based in 1 John 5:14-15 which says, "Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests made of Him." Furthermore, our assumption of the petitions is based on the knowledge that "God desires all men to be saved" (1 Timothy 2:4), which according to Saint John of Damascus is what especially pleases and gladdens the compassionate Lord. He continues to emphasize the fact that our God wants very much that all of us be assisted by everyone both when living and after we die.

Saint John Chrysostom writes that prayers and memorials for the departed are BENEFICIAL. He says that it is a great honor to have your name commemorated at the time of the Divine Liturgy for they provide a certain consolation.

As we can see the Prayers and Memorials have been established by our Holy Orthodox Church both for those who have departed in repentance and for those who have departed in sin. The Church prays out of love for all.

Please Note: For any celebration (marriage, baptism, etc.), meats are not to be served if it is a fasting period. If there is meat, Father cannot attend or even bless the table. Father also cannot attend rehearsal dinners held on Friday nights if there is meat, as Friday is a fasting day. Thank you.

Please Note: The Formal Memorial Services of the Church may be conducted ONLY for Orthodox Christians. Your priest however does include the non-Orthodox Christians of his parish in his private or personal prayers.

Please Note: Memorial services may NOT be chanted from the Saturday of Lazarus through the Sunday of Thomas, on any Feastday of the Lord or any Feastday of the Theotokos.

ITEMS NEEDED FOR MEMORIALS:

- Bottle of Wine (St. John Commandaria or you may donate $20 to the Church in lieu of bringing the bottle)
- One loaf of Prosforo
- Bottle of Olive Oil
- Kollyva

PLEASE NOTE:

If you are not spiritually in good standing (not married in the church, not ecclesiastically divorced, children not baptized, etc.) please give Father George a call to discuss how to remedy this. Father is more than willing to work with our families to be sure they maintain their good standing. Thank you

Simple Ways to Make a Planned Gift

Here are a few simple ways to make a planned gift to your Church. These gifts don't require you to amend or create a Will and don't usually take much time to do. If you are not sure how much to give because you are not sure how much you will need, these methods donate amounts that are left after you are gone.

- Designate your Church as the beneficiary of your retirement account (e.g., IRA or 401(k) plan). (Your plan administrator can provide you with the appropriate beneficiary designation form.)
 - You may leave the entire account or a percentage of the proceeds to the Church.
 - You may name the Church as the primary beneficiary or as the contingent beneficiary.
- Designate your Church as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy you don't need. (Your life insurance agent can provide you with the appropriate beneficiary designation form.)
 - You may leave the entire policy or a percentage of the proceeds to the Church.
 - You may name the Church as the primary beneficiary or as the contingent beneficiary.
- Add a Payable on Death ("POD") or Transfer on Death ("TOD") designation to a bank or securities account so that the account assets are distributed to the Church on your death.
- Establish a pattern of giving to your Church and authorize your Attorney-in-Fact to continue that pattern on your behalf in the event that you become incompetent. If your parish participates in FaithDirect, you may establish your pattern of giving online and it will automatically deduct donations in the amount you designate from the account you direct.
- Direct family members to request that memorial donations be made to your Church on your death.

Please contact your parish priest or a member of your parish's Planned Giving Committee to obtain the legal name of your parish and its tax identification number. You can also contact these Archdiocesan offices for more information on a confidential, no-obligation basis.

Gifts of Appreciated Stock (non-IRA assets for any age donor)

The stock market has performed well the last few years. Many people have owned some stocks for years that have appreciated. As a result, many families today are considering ways to leverage the value of their stock in support of charitable organizations in order to realize the following:

- A gift of appreciated stock to charity preserves 100% of the value, which allows the charity to sell and bypass the capital gains tax (the donor does not pay capital gains tax on the appreciation of the stock value).
- A gift of appreciated stock triggers a charitable income tax deduction that results in actual cash savings to the donor.

Tax Free Gift from your IRA if over age 70 1/2

- Your financial institution must make check payable to St. Andrew Greek Orthodox Church directly from your IRA
- You must be 70 ½ years old or older in 2013
- This gift can count toward your required minimum distribution.
- You can give any amount up to $100,000
- You cannot claim this gift as a charitable deduction since the distribution is Federal Income Tax free.

St. Iakovos Retreat Center

A place to celebrate our Faith and Heritage: Our Hellenic values are embedded in our Orthodox Faith, and the St. Iakovos Retreat Center provides an ideal environment in which to appreciate, celebrate and strengthen the Greek Orthodox Church community.

The Center is a place to reflect upon what we share—and to share in fellowship the precious spiritual, social and cultural gifts with which we have been bestowed.

With the frantic pace of life today, amidst the chaos in the world, finding a place of peace and quiet can be challenging. The beautiful, natural setting of the Center, with ample facilities for a wide array of gatherings, answers this challenge gracefully for members of our community.

A place where God's creation speaks: Set on 137 breathtaking acres in Kenosha County, Wisconsin, the St. Iakovos Retreat Center is a testament to the wonder of the Lord's creation. Away from worldly cares, this natural setting has 35 acres of original growth woods and hills, a sparkling eight-acre lake, streams, tree-lined paths, even a bountiful apple orchard. There are fenced pastures where horses roam, domesticated animals like llamas and dazzling peacocks, as well as wild deer and other creatures that dwell on the land. Where better to reflect upon the many gifts we have been given and how we should live our lives?

Centrally located to serve all parishes and communities within the Metropolis, the Center is 60 miles from Chicago and 35 miles from Milwaukee. It is easily accessible from all parishes of the Metropolis.

A place for our youth to grow in their faith: “Let alone the little children come to Me, and cease hindering them; for such is the kingdom of Heaven.” The St. Iakovos Retreat Center will greatly help us in reinforcing the loving qualities of children the Lord called attention to—and in bringing our children closer to God through our Faith.

An ideal pastoral setting, perfect for youth ministries, Fanari camps, and gatherings of our youth organizations like YAL and GOYA, the Center provides a safe yet stimulating environment for our children to meet, to gain greater understanding of our faith and its traditions, and to build the spiritual foundation that will serve them throughout their lives.

A place of our own to benefit all of us: For many years, the need for our retreat center has been a priority of His Eminence Metropolitan Iakovos of Chicago, the Clergy throughout our parishes, and the laity. Now, by and with the consent of the faithful, that need has been met in the St. Iakovos Retreat Center.

Groups and activities that will benefit immediately from the Center and its facilities includes: Family Synaxis, Metropolis Council, Philoptochos, YAL, GOYA, Fanari, Presvytera Sisterhood, Archons, Youth Ministries, Syndesmos, Social Programs (e.g., The Bishop's Task Force on AIDS) and Cultural/Ethnic Celebrations.

A special place for today, a spiritual home for tomorrow: The St. Iakovos Retreat Center meets our immediate needs by providing an ideal setting to meet individual, family, group, education and church requirements for a special setting away from the cares of the world, by eliminating the outflow of church resources to 'outside' facilities, and by creating a physical and spiritual asset that will appreciate for our community over time.

The nature of The Center itself—its scale, structure and flexibility—ensures that this Retreat will be able to grow as our community grows and meet our needs however they emerge and develop.

The Inter-Christian Marriage

Beloved in Christ,

According to the vital statistics kept by the Department of Registry of our holy Archdiocese of America indicate that the numbers of inter-Christian marriages conducted in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America have steadily increased. Today, nearly two thirds (63%) of all marriages conducted in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese are designated inter-Christian. When Greek Orthodox persons marrying outside of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America are also considered, intermarriage rates are likely closer to 75 – 80%.

In the article ‘Mixed’ Marriages and the Canonical Tradition written by Professor Lewis J. Patsavos, a Professor of Canon Law at Holy Cross School of Theology states the following: “In the early Church when marriages were normally blessed during the course of the Eucharist, marriage under these circumstances between an Orthodox and a non-Orthodox Christian was unheard of. It was not until the marriage ceremony was removed from the central act of worship—the Eucharist—that the term ‘mixed’ marriage acquired meaning...” There are a significant number of canons according to Professor Patsavos i.e., canon 72 of the Sixth Ecumenical Council is unequivocal in its prohibition of marriage between an Orthodox and a non-Orthodox Christian.

Professor Patsavos in this same article points out that “a significant step in the progressively more lenient attitude of the Church of Constantinople towards ‘mixed’ marriages was taken at the end of the last century. It constituted the transfer of the prerogative to exercise ‘economy’ in ‘mixed’ marriages from the Holy Synod to the local bishop. According to related decisions, ideally the non-Orthodox partner should be urged to espouse the Orthodox faith; otherwise, he or she must sign a written statement that children born of the marriage would be baptized into the Orthodox faith”.

The Mysterion (Sacrament) of Holy Marriage between a man and a woman should be performed in the Orthodox Church according to the liturgical tradition, and blessed by a priest recognized as canonical by the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese.

“In the case of ‘mixed’ marriages, the non-Orthodox Christian must be a person who belongs to a denomination which accepts the sacramental character of Holy Baptism. Having been baptized in the name of the Holy Trinity, he or she would declare responsibly that future children will be baptized according to the rites of the Greek Orthodox Church and that they shall be raised in the Orthodox Faith... A non-Orthodox Christian who marries an Orthodox Christian does not automatically become a member of the Orthodox Church, and is therefore not permitted to receive Holy Communion or other sacraments in the Orthodox Church”.

The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America “As a result of the Orthodox concept of economia, (a type of theological tolerance) inter-Christian marriages between an Orthodox Christian and another Trinitarian Christian are permitted. Briefly, the Church has made this concession because it recognizes that we live in an increasingly pluralistic society. The Church is also concerned with each member’s salvation, and therefore does not desire to place any obstacle before its faithful by denying the Sacrament of Marriage to those who choose to enter an inter-Christian marriage.

Although the Orthodox Church permits inter-Christian marriages between its faithful and other Trinitarian Christians, it has done so by seeking to protect its theological integrity. To that end, the following additional pastoral directives (regarding inter-Christian marriages between Orthodox Christians and other Trinitarian Christians) have emerged.

Since the Sacrament of Marriage is a Christian ceremony, and the Orthodox Church does not perform the Sacrament of Marriage for an Orthodox Christian and an un-baptized person, non-Orthodox Christians wishing to get married in the Orthodox Church must have been baptized in the name of the Holy Trinity. In addition, the Orthodox Church also does not perform the Sacrament of Marriage for two non-Orthodox Christians. At least one individual must be Orthodox in good standing with his or her parish. (According to the Special Regulations and Uniform Parish Regulations of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese (Article VI, Section 1), “Any person, eighteen years of age or over, who has been baptized according to the rites of the Church, or was received into the Church through Chrismation, who lives according to the faith and canons of the Church, who has met his financial obligation to the Parish and abides by the regulations herein and the by-laws of the Parish, is a member in good standing of the Parish”).

In order to remain in proper canonical and spiritual standing with the Orthodox Church, Orthodox Christians must be married by an Orthodox priest, in an Orthodox Church, and in the manner prescribed by the priest’s service book.

Couples marrying in the Orthodox Church must also commit themselves to baptizing and raising their children in the Orthodox Church. Orthodox Christians who choose to baptize their future children in their partner’s church call into question their desire to live an Orthodox lifestyle. Such a decision also affects the Orthodox partner’s standing with his or her church.

Since only Orthodox Christians are permitted to participate in the Orthodox Church’s sacraments, sponsors exchanging the wedding rings and crowns must be Orthodox Christians in good standing with their parish. This rule is connected to the Church’s understanding of the sponsor. Briefly, the sponsor is more than a legal witness. The sponsor (koumbaro or Koumbara) also functions as a spokesperson for the Orthodox congregation affirming the spiritual preparedness of the couple to enter into the community of marriage.

Orthodox spouses should be made aware that if their marriage is not solemnized by the Orthodox Church, they are NO longer in good standing and are NOT permitted to receive the sacraments or participate in the sacraments as a sponsor. (The term sponsor is a generic term that refers to either the paranymphos or paranymphy who exchanges the rings and crowns during the Sacrament of Marriage or the godparent during the Sacrament of Baptism).

MONASTICISM IN THE ORTHODOX CHURCH

“The innermost spiritual sense of Orthodox Monasticism is revealed in joyful mourning. This paradoxical phrase denotes a spiritual state in which a monk (or nun) in his prayer grieves for the sins of the world and at the same time experiences the regenerating spiritual joy of Christ’s forgiveness and resurrection. A monk (or a nun) dies in order to live, he forgets himself in order to find his real self in God, he becomes ignorant of worldly knowledge in order to attain real spiritual wisdom which is given only to the humble ones.”

With the development of monasticism in the Church there appeared a peculiar way of life, which however did not proclaim a new morality. The Orthodox Church does not have one set of moral rules for the laity and another for monks or nuns, nor does it divide the faithful into classes according to their obligations towards God. The Christian life is the same for everyone. All Christians have in common that “their being and name is from Christ”. This means that the true Christian must ground his life conduct in Christ, something which is hard to achieve in the world.

What is difficult in the world is approached with dedication in the monastic life. In his spiritual life the monk simply tries to do what every Christian should try to do: to live according to God’s commandments. The fundamental principles of monasticism are not different from those of the lives of all the faithful. This is especially apparent in the history of the early Church, before monasticism appeared.

In the tradition of the Church there is a clear preference for celibacy as opposed to the married state. This stance is not of course hostile to marriage, which is recognized as a profound mystery, but simply indicates the practical obstacles marriage puts in the way of the pursuit of the spiritual life. For this reason, from the earliest days of Christianity many of the faithful chose celibacy. Thus St. Athenagoras the Confessor in the second century wrote: “You can find many men and women who remain unmarried all their lives in the hope of coming closer to God”.

From the very beginning the Christian life has been associated with self-denial and sacrifice: “If any man would come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me”. Christ calls on us to give ourselves totally to Him: “He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me, and he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of me”.

Finally, fervent and unceasing prayer, obedience to the elders of the Church, brotherly love and humility, as well as all the essential virtues of the monastic life were cultivated by the members of the Church from its earliest days.

One cannot deny that the monk or nun and the married man or woman have different ways of life, but this does not alter their common responsibility towards God and His commandments. Every one of us has his own special gift within one and indivisible body of Christ’s Church. Every way of life, whether married or solitary, is equally subject to God’s absolute will. Hence no way of life can be taken as an excuse for ignoring or selectively responding to Christ’s call and His commandments. Both paths demand effort and determination.

Saint John Chrysostom is particularly emphatic on this point: “You greatly delude yourself and err, if you think that one thing is demanded from the layman and another from the monk; since the difference between them is in that whether one is married or not, while in everything else they have the same responsibilities... Because all must rise to the same height; and what has turned the world upside down is that we think only the monk must live rigorously, while the rest are allowed to live a life of indolence”. Referring to the observance of particular commandments in the Gospels, he says: “Whoever is angry with his brother without cause, regardless of whether he is a layman or a monk, opposes God in the same way. And whoever looks at a woman lustfully, regardless of his status, commits the same sin”. In general, he observes that in giving His commandments Christ does not make distinction people: “A man is not defined by whether he is a layman or a monk, but by the way he thinks”.

Christ’s commandments demand strictness of life that we often expect only from monks or nuns. The requirements of decent and sober behavior, the condemnation of wealth and adoption of frugality, the avoidance of idle talk and the call to show selfless love are not given only for monks or nuns, but for all the faithful.

Therefore, the rejection of worldly thinking is the duty not only of monks or nuns, but of all Christians. The faithful must not have a worldly mind, but sojourn as strangers and travelers with their minds fixed on God. Their homes is not on earth, but in the Kingdom of Heaven: “For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city which is to come”. The Church can be seen as a community in exodus. The world is its temporary home but the Church is bound for the Kingdom of God. Just as the Israelites, freed from bondage in Egypt, journeyed towards Jerusalem through many trials and tribulations, so Christians, freed from the bondage of sin, journey through many trials and tribulations toward the Kingdom of Heaven.

In the early days this exodus from the world did not involve a change of place but a change of the way of life. A man does not reject God and turns towards the world physically but spiritually, because God was and is everywhere and fulfills everything, so in the same way the rejection of the world and turning towards God was not understood in physical sense but as a change of the way of life. This is especially clear in the lives of the early Christians. Although they lived in the world they were fully aware that they did not come from it nor did they belong to it: "In the world but not of the world". And those who lived in chastity and poverty, which became later fundamental principles of the monastic life, did not abandon the world or take to the mountains.

Orthodox monasticism has always been associated with stillness or silence, which is seen primarily as an internal rather than an external state. External silence is sought in order to attain inner stillness of mind more easily. This stillness is not a kind of inertia or inaction, but awakening and activation of the spiritual life. It is intense vigilance and total devotion to God. Living in a quiet place the monk or nun succeeds in knowing himself/herself better, fighting his or her passions more deeply and purifying his or her heart more fully, so as to be found worthy of beholding God.

In the lives of monks or nuns the Christian sees examples of men and women who took their Christian faith seriously and committed themselves to the path which everyone is called by Christ to follow. Not all of them attained perfection, but they all tried, and all rose to a certain height. Not all possessed the same talent, but all strove as good and faithful servants. They are not held up as examples to be imitated, especially by laymen. They are however valuable signposts on the road to perfection, which is common for all and has its climax in the perfectness of God.

Young Married Couples, Young Adults Ministry

Through this ministry it is hoped that they will a) be better acquainted with each other; b) have a better understanding of the Holy mission of the church and be involved in the various parish ministries; and c) infuse our parish with greater energy, enthusiasm, ideas and activity. Needless to say, that they are not only the present of our parish but also the future. It is imperative to the welfare, stability and progress of the parish for them to gradually assume greater responsibility and leadership of the parish ministries including administration and organization. Our parish needs them and they need the parish. May God bless this effort and the St. Andrew Parish. If any of our young married couples are interested in joining please call Father George.

Prison Ministry

Our St. Andrew parish has now established a Prison Ministry to serve the spiritual needs of Orthodox Christians who have been convicted of crimes. Father George visits the local prison weekly so as to bring the inmates closer to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and help them grow in our holy Orthodox Christian faith.

Father is able to supply them with Orthodox Christian prayer books, spiritual books, the Orthodox Study Bible, etc. Also, he offers the Sacrament of Holy Confession and conducts prayer services.

We welcome the participation of all Orthodox Christians who have compassion for those men and women who are behind bars. We ask that you include them and their families in your daily prayers.

Orthodox Campus Fellowship

In 2001, Fr. George Konstantopoulos (St. Andrew Greek Orthodox Church) worked closely with Maria Calash (ND student), and James Giannokopoulos (ND student), Fr. Jovic Dragisa (Sts. Peter and Paul Serbian Orthodox Church), Deacon Stefanos Alexopoulos (ND student), and Virgil Andronache (ND student) to establish the first organized Orthodox Campus Fellowship for Michiana (serving the Orthodox student communities of Saint Mary's College, the University of Notre Dame, and Indiana University - South Bend).

Since then, Fr. Konstantopoulos and Fr. Sasa Nedich (current Priest of Sts. Peter and Paul Serbian Orthodox Church) have continued to provide spiritual guidance for all the Eastern Orthodox students as well as opportunities for philanthropic activities, prayer services in various locations, and transportation to the canonically established Eastern Orthodox churches in Michiana. These Eastern Orthodox churches are members of the Standing Conference of Orthodox Churches of America.

The mission of Orthodox Christian Fellowship (OCF) is support fellowships on college campuses, whose members and experience and witness to the Orthodox Christian Church through community life, prayer and study of the faith.

Please contact Father George at 277-4688 if you are interested in joining.

YOUTH MINISTRIES

Uniform Parish Regulations of the Archdiocese: Article 19, Section 3: Each Parish shall endeavor to have at least the following ministries: Chanter(s); a Choir; Acolytes; a Catechetical School; a Greek Language/Cultural School; chapters of the Greek Orthodox Youth of America (GOYA); Young Adult League (Y.A.L.), a Junior Orthodox Youth (JOY); a chapter of the ladies Philoptochos Society; an Outreach and Evangelism Ministry; and such other ministries as are necessary to meet the spiritual and cultural needs of the Parish.

A child's world is changing rapidly—it is virtually impossible to keep up with every new trend and movement of their culture. Growing up in today's society is a much more difficult task than it was in previous times. Our children are constantly being exposed to negative and destructive influences. If these influences are not challenged, they can, and will, define who our children are and what they will become. Innocence is slipping away at an alarmingly early age. For these reasons, the positive teachings and traditions of the Orthodox Church must become a living presence in the lives of our children. This makes ministry to our children not an option, but rather a necessity.

But what is ministry? The word minister means to give aid to those in need. Therefore, a ministry of the Orthodox Church gives aid as part of the Body of Christ. A child becomes a full member of this Body at their baptism. The foundation of all youth ministry is the cultivation and education of our children, so that they may become active members of the Body of Christ. Youth ministry needs to begin early, even before the child begins to participate in Church Ministries. It begins with the family in the home and it needs to continue in the home as the child grows in the Church

We are in need of volunteers to lead the HOPE (K-2nd grades), and GOYA (7th-12th grades). Please contact Father if you are interested in volunteering.

PHILOPTOCHOS PRAYER

O Lord Jesus Christ, we bow our heads before You, and with humble hearts we give thanks to You for the abundant blessings, which You have poured forth upon us. We praise You for gathering us together as members of the Ladies Philoptochos Society in the service to Your Holy Church. We bless You for the selfless sacrifice of countless generations of women who have faithfully fulfilled the philanthropic mission entrusted to them. Through Your ineffable wisdom and Your Divine power, You have enabled us to minister to those who are in need of Your love, Your comfort, and Your care. Make us instruments of Your peace and of Your hope, O Lord. Where there is pain and suffering, may we bring Your healing and comfort. Where there is loneliness and isolation, may we bring the fellowship of Your Holy Church. Where there is despair and discouragement, may we inspire hope and faith in You. Where there is hatred and strife, may we be peacemakers producing the fruits of love and reconciliation. We also ask You, O Lord, to guide our deliberations, our decisions, our fellowship, and all our labors, so that in all we do, or say, we may bring glory to Your Holy Name, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Authentic Symbol of Faith of the One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church

The Confession of Faith

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of the Father before all ages; Light of Light, true God of true God, begotten, not created, of one essence with the Father through Whom all things were made. Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became man. He was crucified for us under Pontius Pilate, and suffered and was buried; And He rose on the third day, according to the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father; And He will come again with glory to judge the living and dead. His kingdom shall have no end. And in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Creator of life, Who proceeds from the Father, Who together with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, Who spoke through the prophets. In one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the age to come. Amen.

Σταυρωθέντα τε υπέρ ημών επί Ποντίου Πιλάτου, και παθόντα και ταφέντα. Και αναστάντα τή Τρίτη ημέρα κατά τάς Γραφάς. Και ανελθόντα εις τούς Ουρανούς, και καθεζόμενον εκ δεξιών του Πατρός. Και πάλιν ερχόμενον μετά δόξης κρίναι ζώντας και νεκρούς, Ού τής Βασιλείας ούκ έσται τέλος. Και εις τό Πνεύμα τό Άγιον, το Κύριον, το Ζωοποιόν, τό εκ του Πατρός εκπορευόμενον, το σύν Πατρί και Υιώ συμπροσκυνούμενον και συνδοξαζόμενον, τό λαλήσαν διά των Προφητών. Our Holy Mission

St. Andrew Greek Orthodox Church of South Bend, Indiana; under the auspices of the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago; is a Christian Community committed to serving our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, guided by the Holy Spirit, and united in faith and in love with God, and called to make that love real to others through...

- Worship (the Divine Liturgy) and the reception of the Sacrament of Holy Communion by which we achieve union with Jesus Christ and with each other.
- Philanthropic Diakonia (Service) to those people in need of our love and compassion. In teaching His disciples the Lord said, "...as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me." (Matthew 25:40)
- Educational Opportunities which enable Orthodox Christians to grow in Christ and be faithful disciples and prepares them to strengthen their personal commitment to our Lord, His church and the Holy Tradition.
- National, Metropolis and Parish Ministries of our Holy Orthodox Church which provide opportunities for Parish Outreach and to live as an integral and vital part of the community. The prime objective is to encourage a greater participation in the life of the Church and the world.
- Teaching the commandment of the New Life, imparting a clear knowledge of the doctrines, traditions, canons and disciplines of the Church and guiding the growth, process and enlightenment of all Orthodox Christians.
