

Twelfth Sunday of Matthew

August 26, 2012

Saints Commemorated today: Sts. Adrian & Natalia the Martyrs and their 33 companions in Nicomedeia

EPISTLE READING

I Corinthians 15:1-11

Brethren, moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received and in which you stand, by which also you are saved, if you hold fast that word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures, and that He was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve. After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain to the present, but some have fallen asleep. After that He was seen by James, then by all the apostles. Then last of He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time. For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. Therefore, whether it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

GOSPEL READING

Matthew 19:16-26

Now behold, one came and said to Him, “Good Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?” So He said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, God. But if you want to enter into the life, keep the commandments.” He said to Him, “Which ones?” Jesus said, “‘You shall not murder,’ ‘You shall not commit adultery,’ ‘You shall not steal,’ ‘You shall not bear false witness,’ ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’” The young man said to Him, “All these things I have kept from my youth. What do I still lack?” Jesus said to him, “If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have and give it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me.” But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. Then Jesus said to His disciples, “Assuredly, I say to you that it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.” When His disciples heard it, they were greatly astonished, saying, “Who then can be saved?” But Jesus looked at them and said to them, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

ENTRANCE HYMN: 3RD TONE

(Page 45 in “The Liturgy of Saint John Chrysostom”)

Let the Heavens rejoice, and let the Earth be glad, for the Lord hath shown strength with His arm: by death He hath trampled upon Death and became the First-Born of the dead; He hath delivered us from the depths of Hades, and to the world hath granted the Great Mercy

CHURCH ETIQUETTE

Please remember to dress appropriately and modestly for church services. There is no chewing gum, talking or crossing your legs in church. Everyone should arrive on time for the Liturgy. Do not leave trash (bulletins, paper, etc) in the pews. It is considered disrespectful for anyone attending Orthodox Christian services to cross their legs during service, chew gum or come in late. Also women who are planning on taking Communion should not wear lipstick or should remove it before going up for Communion. TURN OFF CELL PHONES. Thank you.

A NOTE TO OUR VISITORS

People of different religious affiliation or tradition who behave in a respectful manner are always welcome at the liturgical services of our Holy Orthodox Church but ONLY MEMBERS OF THE ORTHODOX CHURCH who share a common faith and practice a specific spiritual discipline may participate in the Church's sacraments and receive Holy Communion at the Orthodox Divine Liturgy. The Greek Orthodox Church has a closed communion and no intercommunion with any other Christian body. We are blessed by your presence with us and thank you for your understanding. May God bless you always.

A NOTE TO ORTHODOX CHRISTIANS

ORTHODOX CHRISTIANS PLEASE NOTE: The proper preparation for receiving Holy Communion is: 1) prayer; 2) keeping the fast throughout the year (Wednesdays, Fridays, Great Lent, fast of the Holy Apostles, fast of the Dormition and the Christmas Fast, etc); and 3) most important, participating in the Sacrament of Holy Confession and Repentance. ALSO follow these guidelines as you approach for Holy Communion: Take the red cloth from the person before you and place it under your chin. Say your baptismal name. Open your mouth wide and receive the Holy Spoon in your mouth, lower your lips on the Holy Communion spoon and carefully remove the Holy Eucharist so that there is nothing left. After partaking of the Sacrament blot your lips and hand the red cloth to the person behind you. Receive one piece of antidoron, return to your seat and read the post communion prayer. Lipstick, lip gloss, lip balm, etc, should be removed prior to approaching the chalice. Receiving the precious Body and Blood of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ should not be treated like a fast food service. You should come on time for the Divine Liturgy (that means at the beginning) and not leave until the completion of the service. This means that every time you eat this bread and drink from this cup you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. It follows that if anyone eats the Lord's bread or drinks from his cup in a way that dishonors him, he is guilty of sin against the Lord's body and blood. So then, everyone should examine himself first, and then eat the bread and drink from the cup. For if he does not recognize the meaning of the Lord's body when he eats the bread and drinks from the cup, he brings judgment on himself as he eats and drinks. That is why many of you are sick and weak, and several have died. If we would examine ourselves first, we would not come under God's judgment. But we are judged and punished by the Lord, so that we shall not be condemned together with the world. (1 Corinthians 11:26-32).

St. Andrew Iconography
Phase II

Dear Parishioners,

Many of you are aware that the second of three phases of Iconography for St. Andrew has begun and is scheduled to be completed by the feast-day of our Church on November 30. Many parishioners have expressed their desire to make Iconography donations and it came to our attention that additional clarification for the second phase of Iconography is needed.

There will be a total of three phases of iconography for the Church. Phase II of the Iconography will consist of two icons in the Nave of the Church and six icons in the Narthex as described below.

Nave:

- 1) The Koimisis (Dormition) of the Ever-Virgin Mary and Theotokos (North Wall) –donation received.
- 2) Moses/Burning Bush (West Wall – Above the Cry Room) - $15,000

Narthex:

- 1) The Holy Icon of the Holy Family - $8,000
- 2) The Holy Icon of the Holy Napkin – donation received.
- 3) The Holy Icon of Saint Peter and Paul - $2,500 each ($5,000 Total)
- 4) The Holy Icon of Christ “o anapeson” or reclining Christ - $6,000
- 5) The Holy Icon of Christ as Angel - $6,000
- 6) The Medallion of Christ - $2,000

All of the Holy Icons for the first phase of Iconography were donated by parishioners either as individuals or as families. Donations for Phase II (or Phase III) are encouraged. Any amount is welcomed and appreciated. Our goal is to do in Phase II what we did in Phase I: collect enough private donations to cover the cost of the entire effort at no expense to the Parish.

If you would like to make a donation for the second phase (or third phase) of Iconography, please contact the Church office during normal business hours or send in your check writing “Iconography – Phase II” in the memo line, and let Father George or Amber know which icon or icons you would like your donation to go towards.

Sincerely,

The Parish Council
