

BREAD OF STONE

NOT ALONE

Lyrics by Ben Kristijanto

A depiction of our journey through finding true joy, redemption, and love even when life is not going our way. Despite what the world may throw at us, the truth remains that the Spirit of God is in the element of all that surrounds us and His freedom continues to create a pathway of love for our souls to run after. We are not alone and have NEVER been alone. He is always right by our side.

There is freedom in my heart
Though my kingdom is falling apart
I've embarked on a new life Raise a sail I'm holding on

You are the stars above me
You are the sea below

You are guiding me back to love
You carry me on
You carry me on

There is joy in my heart
You know you had me from the start
Though the storm is a raging

I feel Your love crashing in

I feel you breathing
It's Your love I'm sailing in

I'm not alone
God You're with me

TO FIND YOU

Lyrics by Ben Kristijanto & Riley Friesen

Is a declaration that even after finding Jesus we never stop trying to know Him more and cherish the realization that His love lives deep inside of us. We may never truly understand the depth of His love but we long not for understanding but to simply feel His love.

I breath it I feel it
I love it I need it
It's always here
Surrounding revealing
The glow that I see in the atmosphere

A thousand lights across the sky Singing Your name through the darkest night

I know Your love is deep inside
Singing Your praise till the end of time

Take me to the top and I'll still climb
Never gonna stop till the finish line
Everything I am
I leave behind
To find You

I'll never explain it
I cannot contain it it's in the air
It's filling my lungs
It's now part of my blood
This is who I am

You are
You are my one desire

LIFE IS BEAUTIFUL

Lyrics by Ben Kristijanto, Riley Friesen, & Chris Greenwood

Proclaims that the beauty in life is based on our perspective. If we see Jesus in everything, life is surely beautiful. Through the mess-ups, mistakes, triumphs, celebrations, it's astonishing knowing that we serve a God that creates in us beauty amongst ashes.

Are you still searching?
What are you looking for?
Do you dream of a better day?
Is your mind a million miles away?
Is our love a good enough reason to stay?

You had a fire deep inside you
Where has the warmth gone?
Where has the warmth gone?
You are more than skin and bones

You were made to be a miracle
Through my eyes
Life is beautiful

Life is beautiful
Life is beautiful

Every moment not wasted
Every question you cant explain and Everything from dusk to dawn
Life is beautiful

Even in the tears you cry
Even when you don't know why
Love never dies
Life if Beautiful

I try to find the beauty in pain
It's like my soul has been sprained
Can I handle the change?
I rediscover my faith
In the struggle where I'm kneeling to pray

Humbled by Your presence
I need a touch of Your grace
When I wake up
I've made up my mind not to give up

I messed up
Your masterpiece is here
Not a victim
I'm thankful
God blessed

Hard pressed
No stress
Life is beautiful
You're so beautiful

YOUR LOVE

Lyrics by Ben Kristijanto & Riley Friesen

The story of the ultimate example of love. What Jesus wants is ALL of our love with no holding back or thinking about our selves. He wants our whole heart and submission to His call. This song sings the melody of grace and redemption while humbly reminiscing of the great sacrifice of Jesus choosing to die for us.

When You came down born in a manger
You were king of all of the earth and sea
You were more than just a teacher
You were showing us how love can bleed

And I believe

That Your love
Your love wants all of me

That Your love
Your love wants all of me
This is the way
Your love has set us free
This is the way
Your love has set us free

What You said was more than preaching
Every word breathes life inside of me

But they weren't just words

You lived every moment of it Reached out to my heart
Paid the price of sin
And you took my place Where I should have been
I believe

I see the scars upon Your face
Where the crown of thorns was laid
I see the stripes that brought me grace
And I know that I am saved

LOVE CHANGED EVERYTHING

Lyrics by Ben Kristijanto & Riley Friesen

A song about leaving our selfish ways of living, surrendering to the call of the Lord for our lives, and crying out to the Savior for forgiveness and restoration. This song exalts the way that love has a way of revolutionizing our souls in a manner like nothing else in the world.

Sometimes I see myself in the eyes of a vulture
Sometimes I hear my own voice like a howl
Cause I'll fight crawl
Do what I can to make it on my own
I'm left out cold and alone
So cold and alone

Pull me from this sadness

Save me from this madness
Take me from the darkness
I wanna see the sunrise

I'm wondering out in the night still looking for a way back home I got trapped by the lies I was told and the teeth sunk down to the bone
Now I'm chained down
I wanna be free from the life I've always known

I've tried this so many times
But I can't break free on my own

Don't know what I'm fighting for Tell me what I have to gain
I wanna lose myself in Your grace
Show me how I need You now
I'm never gonna be the same
Your love changed everything

PORCELAIN

Lyrics by Ben Kristijanto, Bill Kristijanto, David Thulin, & Jonathan Thulin

We all desire to be perfect, but perfection is not what is on the outside, rather what is on the inside. The lyrics beg to be broken and revived through the breath of the Holy Spirit and His perfect love, not anything we can do ourselves.

Just another look
Yeah just one more look
They won't be satisfied until it's perfect
They gotta fix me up
Yeah it's not good enough
Ya I'm not ready to be put on display

It's like I'm made of porcelain
It's like I'm made of porcelain

It's like I'm made of porcelain
It's like I'm made of porcelain

Breathe life breathe life
Revive me
Breathe life breathe life
Inside of me
Breathe life breathe life
Control me

Come on and break
Come on and break me

It's well past midnight
I just can't get it right
I'm tired of being something I'm not
I'm standing at the edge
Ya I'm so sick of it
I'm going crazy being half-alive

BRAND NEW

A digital saga of how our society has become dependent on electronics, social media, and a fable reality. We are given a choice every sunrise to live a new life of love, and not to be bound by the imitations of this world. WE ARE BRAND NEW and now it's time to LIVE IT! We are not robots designed to live by a system. We were made to live freely and guided by the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:16 MSG).

I download my personality daily
Take it from the screen who I wanna be
I gave up sunlight for the glow of an LED
Traded flesh and blood for this circuitry

I don't want to live this way
I wanna see everything

I don't want to numb the pain
I wanna feel everything

Bring me back to the start
Bring new life to my heart
I wanna live like You
I wanna love like You Where each day is brand new

I'm not a program written by my enemies

Coded for distraction and apathy
I wanna break free from the virtual reality
Technicolor dream where everything is make-believe

I feel alive
Feel alive
Feel alive in Your love

ALL IN

While dancing it's way to the beat of your heart, this song is an Asian-flared lullaby with authentic, life-changing, no-turning-back charisma that will have you bobbing your head before the end of the first verse. ALL IN's catchy tune emphasizes the grand idea of falling into Jesus and not looking back.

Standing on the edge of running away
Being pulled this way that way
Do I leave or stay?

You told me to go and this much I know
Gotta give it all
I'm going all in

I'm going all in
I'm going all in
I'm going all in
No more escape I'll finish the race
I'm giving You everything
I'm going all in

I'm giving You the key to steal my heart
The end of me is where the journey starts

There's only one
You're all we want

YOU WHO SAVED ME (I'D RATHER HAVE JESUS)

Lyrics by Jonathan Thulin & Tedd T

Is a love song to our Savior that expresses the realization that every aspect of life is because Jesus chose to die in our place. We are His and He is our everything. We may not be able to fathom why He allows us to climb high mountains, sail through rough seas, or bear tough circumstances but we rejoice in the reality that HE SAVED US and His plan is perfect.

I am standing here with a heart of fear
I have stumbled hard
Have I run too far?
Should I give up now?
All the voices speak
They're so deafening
I'm not good enough to be what they want
Should I give up now?

The burden of the past
Has let me go at last

Now You are my rain
You are my sky
You're moving like thunder in the night
You are my love
You are my God

With You I will always be enough
As long as I'm alive this world will see
It's You who saved me

It's an uphill climb
I can see it now
All the ups and downs led me here somehow
I can't give up now
I was lost at sea
You could have abandoned me
Just a stranded soul
Now You're leading me back home
And I can't give up now

A love so strong that it breaks down every barrier
Love so deep that it reaches to the heart of me

Love so wide that it stretches to the farthest sea

I'd rather have Jesus than silver or gold
I'd rather be Yours than have riches untold

Lord You are my rain
You are my sky
Wake me up like a thunder in the night
You are my love
You are my God
With You I will always be enough
As long as I'm alive this world will see
It's You who saved me

LOVE THAT LASTS

Lyrics by Ben Kristjanto, Bill Kristjanto, & Tedd T

Hosea 6:6: "I'm after love that lasts, not more religion."

We live in a generation based on superficial love that leads to emptiness and distress; but as believers we have been redeemed by a love that is everlasting and true. This is the type of love that we are after. An anthem of love is what this song proclaims, singing about it is a spectacular beginning, but living it is where the true journey lies.

We were made to love
With freedom in our hearts
This is who we are Written in the stars
A promise from the start
Who we really are It's You we're longing for It's You we're living for Heaven and earth will fade

But Your words remain the same
Don't want to live another day
Making the same mistakes

We're after a love that lasts
Forever a love that lasts
We'll fight for a love that lasts
Forever in love
We're after a love that lasts
Forever a love that lasts

We'll fight for a love that lasts
Forever in love at last

Looking through Your eyes
Love is magnified
We see who You are
You never give up
So we'll never give up
No never give up

WAITING

Lyrics by Ben Kristjanto & Riley Friesen

A calming melody that soothes the soul while expressing the deep longing for anticipating the arrival of Christ. Sometimes it's the quietest moments that allow us to hear God the loudest. While we live in a busy, thundering world this song reminds us that He is our peace, comfort, and warmth.

Some days I see Your face in the clouds
Some days I hear Your voice resound
Some days I strain when the wind starts to howl
But I'll find You when lights go out

This burning desire
Consuming my heart
Drawing me closer to You
I'm poured out like water
You knew from the start
You're coming to light up the dark
But waiting is the hardest part

Dreaming of years where there is no time
A kingdom for the lost who a home will find
When the boundary of heaven and earth collide
I will be by Your side
