OHIO NATIONAL POULTRY EXHIBITION
TO BE HELD NOVEMBER 10\textsuperscript{TH} AND 11\textsuperscript{TH} 2018 IN COLUMBUS OHIO

The age old hobby of hatching and showing poultry has been around for generations.
Hobbyist gather from all different states and even some far off countries to compete with the best of the best in hopes of bringing home that one great honor of Grand Champion of Show.

The Ohio National Poultry Show is an age old event that exhibitors come from miles around every year to place their birds on display to be judged. This event has been in existence since 1956 and it has grown larger every year. This year there are more than 6,000 birds in attendance.

These birds did not happen by accident, the exhibitors have studied genetics and from both trial and error have finally come up with what they feel is the best representation of the Standard of Perfection or “chicken bible” that there is. They bring their birds, display them, compete, learn and go back home to start all over again getting ready for the next year.

The Ohio National is open to anyone that is interested in showing poultry from the very young to the young at heart. It is a 3 day event filled with much anticipation and excitement for both the spectators as well as the exhibitors. The judges come from all 4 corners of the world and are experts in their field with many hours of poultry judging under their hats. With the greatest gathering of poultry breeders on site it will be a fun-filled, action packed 3 days of excitement. You can come get information on raising and showing poultry buy birds or show your own while discussing and learning new strategies from the old timers that have been participating for years.
This is an event you definitely do not want to miss! Whether you are a beginner or an experienced showman there is something for everyone. There will be birds of every kind and variety to view, show or purchase. The show hall opens at 9:00 a.m. Saturday morning and the fun begins from there until closing time at 6 p.m. Come one, come all and enjoy a fun filled day of learning about poultry and getting to know all the exhibitors.
