

Country Club, Johannesburg, South Africa

About The Club

The Country Club Johannesburg is one club with two venues. Our properties are a 20 minute drive apart.

Located in the heart of Johannesburg, Auckland Park is the original home of CCJ and includes spectacular venues for weddings and other celebrations. The widespread grounds are host to a number of outstanding sporting facilities and include accommodation.

The Woodmead property is situated just north of Johannesburg and spreads across 236 hectares and is home to two superb golf courses: Woodmead and Rocklands, ranked 9 and 59 in South Africa respectively. It is recognised among the most prestigious venues for corporate golf days.

Dining Facilities

The Country Club Johannesburg's restaurants offer a wealth of choices whether it be a formal dining experience, a casual family lunch or anything in between. The Club has a variety of options.

At Auckland Park, order pub meals in The Club Room while playing a round of snooker or watching sport on the big screen TV. The Gallery Restaurant is open all day for meals, while The Rainbow Room offers delicious buffet lunches on Fridays.

The outstanding views at Woodmead complement its restaurants' excellent food. The Grill Room offers a sushi bar and à la carte menu, Tuesday – Saturday lunch and dinner as well as Sunday lunch while The Member's Bar serves wholesome meals until late evening. The Club Terrace boasts a panoramic view of Johannesburg and is a favourite for after-work sundowners and snacks.

The Sandwedge is Woodmead's renowned halfway house where golfers can enjoy light breakfasts and lunches. Spit braais are held on Sundays at The Pool Pavilion - the perfect place to relax while overlooking one of the best views in town.
