

Bees Across New Britain

Sponsorship Application (Deadline: January 16, 2018)

Bee a part of the fun!

Company/business/nonprofit (if applicable): _____

Name of contact person: _____

Postal Address: _____

Telephone # of contact person: _____

Email address of contact person: _____

Desired location for the bee (if any): _____

Would you like your bee to reflect the nature of your business or organization?

Yes Not necessarily N/A

If you have an idea for a name for your bee what is it? _____

Please note that Artists do their best work when they are inspired and then given the freedom to express this. It can be tempting to give explicit instructions to artists, but artists do their best work when given the freedom to express their unique vision and creativity. Great art does not meet, it exceeds expectations.

Please indicate your sponsorship level

___ Bee Keeper @ $2,500

A custom-designed bee for the sponsor's location which the sponsor will keep at the end of the Project.

___ Bee Enthusiast @ $2,000

The bee will be auctioned off at the end of the Project and placed at the location of the purchaser's choosing.

Note: The Greater New Britain Arts Alliance is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. For tax purposes, Bee Keepers (@ $2,500) can claim $200 as a tax-deductible donation. Bee Enthusiasts can claim the full amount of $2,000 as a tax-deductible donation. A donation letter will be provided.

Please send this completed form and a check in the full amount made out to the GNBA to Next!

Sponsors will be notified of the artists selected by the Bees Across New Britain Committee to paint their bees. At that time, and if they wish, sponsors can communicate with artists any ideas they might have for their bees, keeping in mind that we want the artists to have the freedom to surprise us with their creativity. The GNBA will make every effort to ensure sponsors are delighted with their finished bees. However, refunds may not be possible if a sponsor is unhappy with a finished bee.
