P4H SPRING FUNDRAISER
Monday, May 13th, 2013
Time: Silent Auction begins at 5pm, performances at 6pm
Brigham and Women’s Hospital, 75 Francis St, Boston

Brigham and Women’s Hospital has once again made P4H the beneficiary of its annual Medicine and the Muse fundraiser. Support P4H while enjoying a talent show with performances from local Boston and Haiti groups, a silent auction featuring work by Haitian artists, travel packages, restaurant gift certificates, and mingling with P4H staff and fellow supporters.

More details to follow on our website! www.physiciansforhaiti.org

THANK YOU TO WOLTERS KLUWER!
Wolters Kluwer has kindly donated over $2000 worth of textbooks to our Haitian partner organizations. Our students and trainees are grateful to finally have access to new copies of some of the premier texts in the field!

P4H REPRESENTATIVE AT UNITE FOR SIGHT CONFERENCE
In April, former intern Rachel Bedenbaugh, MPH represented P4H at the Unite for Sight conference with her poster presentation “A Needs Assessment of Continuing Medical Education in Haiti.” Thanks to everyone who stopped by to discuss P4H’s and Rachel’s research!

BASEBALL IN THE TIME OF CHOLERA
Tuesday, April 23rd, 2013

P4H was proud to co-sponsor a film screening and panel discussion on Baseball in the Time of Cholera.

Baseball in the Time of Cholera provides powerful insight into the tragedy and scandal of Haiti’s Cholera epidemic through the eyes of a young baseball player. As the epidemic spreads, the two stories intersect in the struggle for survival and justice. P4H’s own Advocacy Chair, Rishi Rattan, was on the panel at this event.

Members of our partners the Fleming Class, along with P4H members Dr. Marisa Nadas and Dr. Michelle Morse, at a P4H-sponsored conference in Port-au-Prince in March
A number of physicians are teaching courses at our partner institutions this spring as part of P4H’s Visiting Professor Program. At UNIFA, Erica Felkor-Cantor, MA, MSPH taught a course on Qualitative Research Methods in March, and in April the husband-and-wife team of Lopa Basu DO, MPH, MBA and Ruben Frescas, MD, MPH taught their course on the social determinants of health for the second straight year. Also in March, Luc Bouquet, RN taught a group of nurses in St. Marc about the principles of cardiology. In May, Elisabeth Baron, MD will be accompanying our own Marisa Nadas, MD, MPH to teach a course on Obstetrics and Gynecology at St. Boniface Hospital.

P4H is pleased to be welcomed into the HIFA 2015’s global network of supporting organizations and the Global Healthcare Workers Alliance. HIFA 2015 is an international campaign and knowledge network comprised of over 2,000 organizations from 167 countries. We are excited to work together with other HIFA 2015 organizations to contribute to a broader goal of disseminating knowledge and making Healthcare Information For All by 2015 a reality.

GWHA is an organizational alliance network for information sharing, networking and collaboration among healthcare workers. We look forward to the access that GWHA will provide us to share our work and research regarding the healthcare worker crisis.