2020 Marshall Wolf Social Medical Education Fellows

Dr. Miliane Clermont

Dr. Clermont is a general practitioner working at Saint Boniface Hospital as Deputy Director and Manager for health programs focusing on Community Health, Maternal and Child Care, ongoing training for health professionals and TB/HIV. She is also on the health economics faculty at a nursing school in Les Cayes. Dr. Clermont earned her medical degree at the State University in Port-au-Prince and completed post-graduate courses in Health System Management. Her interests include Social Medicine, Health System Strengthening, Health Professional Education and Quality Improvement.

Johane Josema

Johane Joséma is a sixth-year medical student at Université Notre Dame d'Haiti and is also the Administrator of Social Medicine Alumni Haiti (SMAH). She has previously served as a teaching assistant in EqualHealth’s Social Medicine Course. She is particularly interested in pediatric, social medicine, teaching and research. She has five years of experience working with SMAH.

Dr. Ornella Sainterant

Dr. Sainterant is a specialist in Family medicine and Palliative Care. She works at Mirebalais University Hospital (HUM) as palliative care physician in the oncology department works as the Continuing Education Coordinator, and focuses on Quality Improvement and Research. She is the vice-secretary of the Haitian Family Physician Association. Dr. Sainterant is a graduate of the medical school of the State University in Haiti and is an alumna of the Haitian Education and Leadership Program. Dr. Sainteraint graduated with the first family medicine residency cohort led by Zanmi Lasante/ PIH at St Nicholas Hospital in St Marc, Haiti. She is interested in Equity and Justice in Patient Care, Medical Education, Quality Improvement, and research.