

ARYA

*Wishes you and your family a Happy New Year!
Persian New Year*

is celebrated multilaterally across all religions and cultures. Falling on March 21, at the precise moment of the vernal equinox, the holiday originally marked the end of winter and the beginning of a new growing season. In Iran it marks the beginning of two weeks of holidays and festivities and is celebrated with a multi-course meal and elaborate decorations centered around the haft-sin table or "Table of the Seven Ss" so-called because seven of the traditional items Begin with s

Get together with friends and family to celebrate the new year with us!
Join us for a spectacular Traditional Persian Dinner prepared just for Nowruz,

PERSIAN NEW YEAR CELEBRATIONS

March 17, 2018 and March 24

Live music by Parsa 3/17/2018
and belly dance show

Live music by Siamak 3/24/2018
and belly dance show

Buffet Style Menu

Borani Bademjoon

Panir Sabzi

Shirazi Salad

Maust Khisar

Zereshk polo rice

Ghormeh Sabzi

Fesenjoon

Boneless Chicken Kabob

Koobideh Kabob

Sabzi Polo Mahi

Mahi (white fish) traditional for norooz

Basmati rice with saffron

Grilled tomatoes

Chef Special Dessert

$59.95 per person for adults plus tax and tip

$29.95 for children plus tax and tip