

Individual Membership

Definition – Unassigned Recruit (Temporary Individual Member)

Unassigned recruits are people who have temporary individual membership in the N-SSA, but are not yet members of a member organization. This category of membership exists to allow new skirmishers a period to meet member organizations and to make informed decisions about their own memberships. This temporary individual membership is open to people who has never been a member of the N-SSA, or who have been voluntarily inactive in the N-SSA for five or more consecutive years, or who were members of member organizations, which have folded more recently.

Definition – Recruit Company

The Recruit Company is not a member organization; it is a temporary holding company for unassigned recruits, and it does not have a voice or a vote in association or region business.
