bullet had passed through the fleshy part of her upper leg, and passed out of the front of her left leg. By that time a man, who said he was her relative came up, and agent went with her and this man to the latter's place of business up the street toward the Biograph theatre. She stated that she wanted Dr. Fenn, or Fenner; that she was not suffering, and did not think it was very bad. By that time the throng of people was making its way toward the spot where the shooting had occurred, and agent, with other agents attempted to hold the crowd back.

A local police officer had begun systematically searching the body of Dillinger. I requested that they look for a gun, as he had reached for one. Mr. Purvis stated that he had already taken a gun out of his hand, and that it was a .380 calibre Colt Automatic.

In a short while, an ambulance had arrived, and this agent and Special Agent Jerry Campbell proceeded to the office.

Respectfully submitted,

C. B. WINSTEAD,
Special Agent
