Director,
Division of Investigation,
U. S. Department of Justice,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter dated June 29, 1934, instructing that two more Agents of this office be assigned to Mr. Cowley for the purpose of investigation in the Dillinger case, and also that Agent G. C. Woltz be assigned to this case.

Agent Woltz has reported to Mr. Cowley already for duty, and Mr. Cowley has examined the list of Agents on general assignment and has selected Special Agents M. Chaffetz and C. R. LaFrance to be assigned to the Dillinger case.

For your information, I am showing below the Agents and their present assignments in order that the Division may be fully informed:
