SUNDAY: COMING OUT IN FAITH

Many cultures and religious traditions around the world use this time, late fall, to reflect on the transformations we each endure through the process of losing those we love. All Saints Day, All Souls Day, Dia de los Muertos—these are a few of the best-known holidays honoring the beloved dead. The transition into autumn, with all of the letting-go that it entails, provides the perfect backdrop for a service on the theme of loss and grief, in which we will observe a special ritual for the remembrance of our lost loved ones. Please bring a photograph or a memento symbolizing your loved one(s) for the Altar of Remembrance that we will create together during this worship service.

TAKING IT HOME

This week's order of service has a new insert that we hope you will take home, so you have a handy reference for when all the groups associated with UUTC meet. We are printing extra orders of service so that you do not have to worry about us "having enough."

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR EMA STONE

Ema Stone's memorial service will be held at the English Chapel (in the forest) 3:00pm on Saturday, October 28 (this is a correction of the date that was in the Times).

SOCIAL JUSTICE GIVING TO BACKPACK BUDDIES

Please be sure your check is made out to UUTC with "Backpack Buddies" on the memo line. Thanks!

INTO THE LIGHT: WAR ON DRUGS

Local Sources of Hope and Compassionate Support and Healing for Those Dealing with Drug Abuse and Addiction: A panel of regional experts who are using best practices to treat and heal those dealing with substance abuse and addiction.

WOMEN'S GROUP REACHING ACROSS THE AISLE

The November Women's Group meeting is a special one—men are welcome to swim in the same pond this month! Thursday, November 2nd, bring a brown bag lunch at 12:30 and stay for a poetry reading by Alexandra Burroughs.

CRE FAMILY POTLUCK

The CRE Family Fall Potluck and Elementary CON Send Off is Friday, November 3 from 5:30-7:30pm. Bring a dish to share and join us in food, fellowship and fun and help us send off our Elementary CON participants well-fed and in style! For questions or to RSVP please email creutc@gmail.com.

IT'S SCARY TO BE HUNGRY

THIS SUNDAY, Dumbledore's Army of UUTC would like your help in defeating the Hunger Horcrux. Bring canned goods and other non-perishables for Sharing House on this Sunday. Or, purchase baked goods to fund Backpack Buddies!
