

UUpdate for January 19, 2018

SUNDAY: INFINITE HOPE

Due to illness, Pedro Sandin will not be our speaker-- Rev. Ilene will! Pedro will swap, and speak next week.

WOMEN'S MARCH—ASHEVILLE

For those attending the Women's March in Asheville on Saturday: carpool meetup is at 8 am at the outer edge of Walmart parking lot. For those who already have full cars: The starting point is at Memorial Stadium, 32 Buchanan Pl., Asheville. We will not be marching in the streets—insufficient funds were on hand to pull a permit, so make sure you stay on the sidewalks.

MUFFINS WITH THE MINISTER

Monday, join Rev. Ilene for coffee, carbs and conversation! She is all yours from 10-noon. Meets in the social hall or the large classroom... give yourself a little time off!

FORMER HAVEN RESIDENT

On Sunday I asked people to remember Raymond Collins (his given name was Tommie, not Donnie), a resident of The Haven who passed away at Transylvania Hospital. His family could use help with funeral expenses. Please contact The Haven if you would like to contribute--Raymond was a kind, respectful man who always sincerely thanked anyone who helped him. -- Jill Beach

SOCIAL JUSTICE GIVING FOR JANUARY

This month we are giving to The Haven of Brevard. The Haven shelters those most in need with its two facilities, providing structure and a path to stability in the lives of its clients.
