

Mini UUpdate for June 8th, 2018

Jake Zimmerman's crew removed the white pine threat on the southern border of our property on Tuesday.

SUNDAY: WHEN BAD THINGS HAPPEN TO GOOD PEOPLE

As Unitarian Universalism is a non-creedal faith, we are not given easy answers to questions such as "Who is good and who is bad?" "Why does evil exist?" and "Why do bad things happen to good people?" Instead, we rely on our personal moral compasses, our collective insight and life experiences, and the wisdom of the world's religions to guide us when times get tough. In our beloved community, full of diverse beliefs and life experiences, we will explore together the challenging questions that bubble up throughout our lives in times of pain and grief.

CELEBRATION OF LIFE

A memorial service for Gary Kendrick will be held Sunday at 2:00pm. A large crowd is expected, including lots of family. come be a part of the celebration of a wonderful man. Please carpool!

THANK YOU!!

I want to thank everyone who attended and helped to organize Peg Hall's memorial service last Saturday. Peg would have loved it. The outpouring of love and support from the congregation over the past months has been amazing. I am eternally grateful to you all.

-- Gerry Azzata

LOOKING FOR MAGAZINES

The Education Committee of the NAACP is looking for copies of the April 2018 National Geographic which has an article about black colleges called A Place of Their Own. If you would be willing to donate this edition, please contact Virginia MacDonald at vrmacd2527@gmail.com or call at (828) 862-6505.

FELLOWSHIP ON TAP--THIS WEDNESDAY

Join the crowd at 6:00 at Quixote's for conversation and excellent cuisine. Sign up at the front desk of the church or call the office to get your spot reserved!

NOT SURE WHAT ELSE IS COMING UP?

Check the Public Calendar and the "insider" calendar. And don't forget to log in to Facebook and check into our Group to keep up with Rev. Ilene and others!

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!