

Kid Reading

How lucky do we consider ourselves to be present with you on this day?
It may be considered a little unusual but we're so glad you've done it this way!
How many kids have the good fortune to say That they shared in the memories of their parents Wedding Day
The pride and the love we will feel in our hearts,
When the music and the ceremony starts.
It means so much to be able to share it and take the memories of that through our life
The day that our truly wonderful Dad, takes our beautiful Mommy as his Wife!
