The Sunday of the Resurrection: Easter Day

Alleluia. Christ is risen.

The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

With this Easter acclamation we begin the celebration of the Great 50 days of Easter when we rejoice in the resurrection of our Lord and our participation in that glorious and holy event that forever changed the nature of our relationship with God.

We welcome you to Trinity this morning and to this Feast of the Resurrection of Christ, the greatest and oldest feast day of the Christian Church.

After having walked through Holy Week, where we were drawn into the depth of Jesus' self-giving love as he washed the feet of his disciples and then offered his own body for us, first through the institution of the Lord's Supper, and then by his dying on the cross, we have experienced deep pain and sorrow. The absence of Christ on Good Friday, evidenced by the stripped altar and a covered cross, startled us into an awareness of how empty our lives would be without Christ. Deep within our souls, we began to yearn for Christ to be present again in our lives and to offer us a new beginning and lead us into a life full of the light and love of Christ, which God desires for each one of us. Today we celebrate that Christ is indeed risen. Christ has broken the bonds of suffering, sin, and death, and offers us salvation.

Throughout the year, each Sunday worship is considered a "little Easter", for Christ's resurrection is what we celebrate and proclaim each week. We as Christians are "Easter people". We live with hope into the promise of our salvation, offered to us by Christ.

We hope that you will return often and consider making Trinity your spiritual home. We are a community of faith striving to share God's self-giving love with others and to be a spiritual community that carries the joy of being part of the "Jesus movement" into the world.

The Nicene Creed (standing)

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please remain standing or kneel, as you are able.

Lector As disciples who know that Christ is risen, let us pray for the Church and for the world.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector As your Church rejoices today in the Resurrection of her Lord and Savior, may her worship be reverent and her proclamation faithful. May every Christian soul respond in faith to the call of the Master and make haste to tell the good news.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector Let the Easter hope be known in all the world. Give light to those who seek, assurance to those who doubt, and peace to all. May Christ be known as the only Lord, the only hope of the nations.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector Be with our families and friends and all who share with us the wonder of the Resurrection. May the presence of Christ bring us close to those who are separated from us, in the knowledge that no distance can part us from his love.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector Have mercy on those who stand at the open door of faith but are held back by doubt or fear of their unworthiness. Draw them in, that they may begin the new life that Christ has brought. Help and comfort those for whom suffering and sorrow mar the happiness of this Easter season.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector We pray for those who have shared with Christ the death of the body, and now share with him the eternal life of his Resurrection. May the promise that has been fulfilled in them be our hope in this world and our place in the world to come.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant We pray in the name of Christ who conquered death that we might live for ever.

People Amen.

Please kneel.

The Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Ministers and People together

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Please stand.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Ministers and People greet their neighbors in the name of the risen Lord, by saying, "Peace be with you".

Please sit.

Offertory Sentence Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

Offertory Anthem

Offertory Presentation      tune: "All Creatures of our God and King"      Hymnal #400

The Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer A)

Celebrant      People
The Lord be with you.      And al - so with you.

Celebrant      People
Lift up your hearts.      We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People

Sanctus

Hymnal #S-125

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world. (Sanctus bells are rung here.)

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." (Sanctus bells are rung here.)

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." (Sanctus bells are rung here.)

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say;

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread
