Toronto Art Crawl Announces Inaugural Night Market and Live Auction

Toronto-based event planning company adds brand-new initiative to its roster of annual art-based events

September 12, 2017 (Toronto, ON) – Popular art-based event planning company, Toronto Art Crawl, is excited to announce their first ever annual Night Market and Live Auction.

Taking place on October 13, 2017 from 6 p.m. to 12 a.m., in the beautiful and newly renovated heritage building The Great Hall at 1087 Queen Street West, this much-anticipated event will bring together artists and patrons alike for a vibrant celebration of the best and brightest in Toronto's art and design scene.

Attendees can look forward to browsing the works of over 60 talented artists and designers, as well as have the chance to participate in a live auction featuring one-of-a-kind products, hand-picked from an amazing lineup of vendors.

The event will also feature live DJs, a cash bar, and food vendors for what will be the ultimate "Friday night destination," according to Toronto Art Crawl Founder and CEO Nadia Lloyd.

"I've never heard of any art exhibit or art market in Toronto that has a live auction component," said Lloyd. "I thought it would be fun to invite the city to an auction and let them be a part of something that is usually unattainable to the general population."

Toronto Art Crawl is the force behind some of Toronto's most popular arts-based events. The company has hosted 25 events in the city since its inception in 2013.

"The number one goal of every event that I run is to support local artists by connecting them with the public," said Lloyd.

The first 25 entrants at the door will be receiving our customized luxury swag bags values at over $125, featuring items from some of our vendors and sponsors! Come early for your chance at scoring one of these bags.

Grab a bite, do a little shopping, participate in the auction, all in one place. The Toronto Art Crawl Night Market & Live Auction is ONE DAY ONLY. Friday October 13, 2017 at The Great Hall.

Tickets are $8 in advance and $10 at the door. Kids under 10 are free.

About Toronto Art Crawl
