Josh M. G. Yates (b. 1989) is a British artist currently living and working in New York City. He was born in the English Channel Islands and at age 18 he moved to the United States to pursue his higher education. Josh received his undergraduate BFA in Painting from the Massachusetts College of Art and Design in May 2012. He then worked as a studio assistant for Providence based artist Stuart Diamond. Josh moved back to the UK in September 2012, following the expiration of his student visa. He enrolled in the Contemporary Art program at Sotheby's Institute of Art in London, graduating with an MA in Contemporary Art in 2013. After this Josh moved back to the United States, settling in New York where he now resides. He has exhibited and sold work to private collectors in the States and abroad. He is currently a 2018 MFA Fine Art candidate at the School of Visual Art in New York. He is also undertaking an internship for Marilyn Minter, as a studio assistant.
